This deed of two parts made & entered into this 21st day of October in the year of our lord 1800, between Thomas E Pleasants now of the county of Goochland of the one part, and Robert Watkins of the county of Henrico & city of Richmond, and William Gray of the said city of the other part witnesseth, that the said Thomas E Pleasants for sundry good causes & considerations him thereunto moving & which are herein after more particularly expressed, but more particularly for and in consideration of the said Thomas E Pleasants standing justly indebted sundry persons to wit, Robert Pollock Sec. of the city of Richmond Robert Gordon Sec. of the said city, Elijah Johnson of the county of Louisa & sundry others, his just and lawful creditors; and the said Thomas E. Pleasants being anxious, & desirous that full & compleat justice should be done the persons aforementioned with all others his just & lawful creditors, and being from his present situation & other circumstances incapable in his own person of making arrangements of his property in such a manner as to answer the purposes above mentioned; Now these presents are for the express purpose of vesting in the said Robert Watkins & William Gray a full & compleat authority to dispose of all and singular the lands, goods, chattels, monies, rights, credits & interests which appertain to the said Thomas E. Pleasants or in which he is in any manner whatever interested, hereby granting to the said Robert Watkins & William Gray a full power to sell, barter, make over, exchange or dispose of in any manner whatever any part of the property of him the said Thomas E. Pleasants & having made any disposition whatever of any part of the said property to grant & execute in the name of the said Thomas E. Pleasants any instrument of writing which may be proper for conveying to such purchaser or purchaser a property title to the said property so dispos'd of. - And further that the said Robert Watkins & William Gray trustees aforesaid have full power and authority for me & in my name to sue for or in any other legal manner get possession of any outstanding debts which may be due to me in in any place whatever and having received any monies, or other article whatever to grant to any persons paying or delivering such money or other article proper acquittances & discharges in the name of him the said Thomas E. Pleasants. - And further that the said Trustees do in some convenient time advertise a meeting of the just & lawful creditors of him the said Thomas E. Plea-sants; and do make known to them the contents of this trust, and do make propositions to them of receiving such a proportion of their just claims as it may from time to time be in the power of the said trustees to pay them, or take assignments of the debts or other property of the said Thomas E. Pleasants upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the said trustees, and any of the creditors aforesaid. - And it is further agreed that the said trustees shall receive a reasonable compensation for any trouble to which they may be put by carrying this trust into execution, and all just expenses shall also be paid out of any money which may come into their hands. - And if from circumstances which may hereafter arise it may be thought necessary to execute any other instrument for more completely vesting in the said trustees the powers which are meant to be conveyed by these presents, the said Thomas & Pleasant doth bind himself to execute any such instrument whenever applied to for that purpose.
