Spencer Davis
Will

In the name of God, Amen. I Spencer Davis of the County of Gloucester and State of Virginia being very weak in body but of perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the remembrance of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die do make and conclude this my last Will and Testament that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend myself unto the hands of Almighty God that gave it and my body I successively to this earth to be buried in Christian burial at the discretion of my executors nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive this down again by the Almighty power of God and to have such worthy estate wherewithal it may please God to keep me in this life I give service and disposal of the same in the following manner and first of all I make and appoint my wife Jane Davis to be my Executrix and Andrew Campbell executor of this my last Will and Testament, all my just debts to be paid in the first place and any estate to be divided as follows I give and bequeath to my wife Jane Davis some of the ~~the~~ ^{longest} eleven to hold the land now having on my plantation beginning at the mouth of ^{the} river between the two plantations little but a large white rock on the edge of the River then running up the stream to the head then to a corner of a hundred and fifty acres, with the side bounded and fifty acres more distance to William Anderson's line belonging to where I now live except what I have deeded away there during the time to the beginning to be left in the plantation in necessary houses as will be sufficient to carry on the farm of the same size and so many cows and their stocks of all kinds as also the longest lines white & grey to keep, and the others to be sold, and the black and blacksmith horses to remain on the place till my death, there to be sold amongst James, Sally, Peter, Cynthia, Rebecca, John, James H., and my Grand son John R. Davis & the slaves it may be sold by the above heirs and no other person to buy, and the money to be equally divided amongst all my heirs and my grand son John R. Davis, to have an equal share with one of my heirs. I bequeath to my son James H. Davis the old place where we now live at my death, and the house with lots to bequeath between James H.
Davis and John Reuben. I bequeath to my Grand son John R. Davis a tract of land beginning at the mouth of a stream, the first stream above the white Rock running up the stream to the line of 150 acres with that line or first place to W. Campbell's line, then bounding on Gloucester, Hollis & Campbell's line, to the River thence up the river to the beginning of the same. One hundred acres more or less being good house building land and so. I bequeath by the will fifteen Dollars to make his right to the rest of the heirs, and if any of the legatees is disentitled with this my last will they are not to have any thing more than what they have already got from me and I do hereby utterly disclaim all title and claim over all and every thing
