John Martin Dickenson D.C.

This twelfth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six. I do make this my last Will and testament, being weak in body but sound in memory. First I recommend my body to the dust and my spirit to God that gave it. And for the disposing of my worldly possessions first I do give and bequeath unto my Daughter Hannah Benson One Dollar out of my estate. And to my daughter Frankie at her coming of age I give twenty pounds in a featherbox and furniture and Cow and calf and other property to Valuation. And further I give and bequeath to my other two daughters Nancy and Rachel each of them a fether box and furniture and Cow and calf and other property to Valuation to make them twenty pounds each. Further to my sons namely John, Joseph & John I give and bequeath at their coming of age to each of them a horse to be Valued at twenty pounds or to be made up to that by Valuation out of my estate. Further I do leave unto my loving wife Peggy Phillips all the rest of my Real and personal estate including my natural life on widowhood, and at her second marriage or decease then to be disposed of to my children and grand children hereafter named to wit, William Phillips, Thomas Phillips, Robert Phillips, Richard Phillips, John Phillips, Joseph Phillips, and John Phillips. daughters Molly Lumsberry, Betsey Dalton, Friedrick Phillips, Nancy Cook, Nancy Phillips, and Rachel Phillips and to my daughter Hannah four children namely, John Henson, and William Henson Anne Henson and Peggy Henson to wit to each of them an equal part of my estate Real and Personal except my four grand children hitherto named to have but one child's part, And in the Willing of legacies I mentioned not my eldest children they having received their parts And lastly I do constitute and Ordain my loving wife Peggy Phillips Executor and my loving friend Andrew Cook Executor to this my last Will and testament Sign seals & Witness the day & year above written
