"Ordiceit: Upon reflection I deem it proper to say, that the clause in the last article of this my last will and Testament, releasing or exonerating my Executor from giving security, upon his qualifying, as Executor was inserted, presuming she would not marry, but as a knowledge of future events is wisely concealed from us and we cannot foresee what may happen, though my confidence in the integrity of my beloved wife is undiminished, yet it is my Will and desire, and my particular request to her, that if she should wish to marry, that she shall give security to the Court before she do so, for the faithful discharge of her executrixship of this my last will and Testament, but if she should prefer to do so, and marry, then it is my will and desire, that the Court shall require her to give the security, and if she shall then refuse or fail to do so, then upon such refusal or failure, it is my will and desire that the power or office of Executor of my last will and Testament shall then cease, and all authority given her shall be revoked, and that she then be required to settle with my Executor if living, if not with such person as the Court shall then appoint for that purpose, fully and completely, my Estate being committed to others although she had never qualified as Executor of this my last will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I do hereunto set my hand and affix my Seal this 30th day of April 1846.
