Item 1st It is my will and desire, that my Executors, herein after named, so soon as may be, after my decease dispose of my perishable property, not disposed of by will, and pay my just debts and funeral expenses.

Secondly It is my will and desire, that if my daughter in law Sarah S. Carpenter, widow of my deceased son James S. The balance of the value of the land to be divided into two equal annual payments, one half to be paid at the expiration of twelve months from the time she receives the land, and the remaining half at the expiration of two years.

Thirdly, If my said daughter in law Sarah S. Fourthly, I desire to do ample and equal justice to all my children and as I have made advancements to them, and not to all of them equally, I desire that in appointing my estate as I shall herein direct, that the charges made, and as made, by me, in a book kept for that purpose, against each of them be taken into consideration and equalized, and any debt or debts that I or my executors may pay, for any of them, shall be considered as a portion advanced for the one for whom it is paid and shall be equalized with the others as above provided, and as I desire that they shall do equal justice to each other, it is my will, that any just Probate Court.

In the matter of the Probate of the last will and testament of Albert M. Hill deceased.

Deposition of subscribing witnesses

William J. Welch of New Haven being duly sworn and examined before the Probate Court for the District of New Haven, deposes and says, I was acquainted with Albert M. Hill now deceased. That the subscription of the name of said deceased, at the end of the instrument now shown to me and offered for probate as the last will and testament of the said Albert M. Hill deceased and bearing date the 14th day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, was made by the said deceased at the town of New Haven in the presence of myself and the other subscribing witnesses.

That at the time of making such subscription the said deceased declared the said instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament, and thereupon signed my name as a witness, at the end of said instrument, at the request of said deceased and in his presence. I also saw Casper Kipp and Oliver S. White the other subscribing witnesses, sign their names as witnesses at the end of said instrument, and I believe that they did so at the request and in the last will and testament and codicil thereto of Albert M. Hill late of New Haven in said district deceased, having been presented for probate and all parties interested in the probate thereof having had notice of the hearing thereon, this court finds that the lines drawn through certain words in the second paragraph of said instrument purporting to be said last will were inserted subsequent to the execution thereof and said instruments are proved, approved and allowed as the last will and testament of said deceased and ordered to be recorded.

After hearing the parties with their evidence this court finds that the allegations of said application are proved and true, and said instruments were duly executed by the testator for his last will and testament, and that he was at the time of executing the same of lawful age and of sound mind and memory. It is therefore considered by this court that said will and codicil are duly proved and the same are approved, allowed and ordered to be recorded. And on the said day Frank S. Burningham of Stamford Conn, the executor named in said will is ordered to give a probate bond in the penal sum of Three Thousand ($3000) Dollars before entering upon his duties as such executor and said Executor is approved and letters testamentary are granted to him he having appeared in court, accepted said trust, and given a probate bond with sufficient surety, in the sum of Three Thousand ($3000) Dollars, which bond is accepted and approved and ordered to be recorded.

This day came again the parties by their attorneys and it is ordered that it appear of record that the issue joined for the trial for which this jury was impaneled is, whether or not the paper writing, signed by Sallie E. Macker and dated April 17th 1905, and the writing attached thereto, purporting to be a codicil thereto, dated June 9th 1908, or any part of either of said papers is the true last will & testament, of Sallie E. Macker deceased.

And, thereupon came the jury sworn and impaneled pursuant to their appointment, and having heard all the evidence, and argument of counsel, were sent out of court to consider of their verdict, and, after some time, returned into court and on their oaths do say:

That the jury on the issue joined find that the paper dated Apr. 17th 1905 and the paper writing attached thereto dated June 9th 1908 is not the last will or is any part thereof the last will of Sallie E. Macker, deceased.

Rev. C. Marshall

Clerk

Thereupon the proponents, by counsel, moved the court to set aside the verdict of the jury upon the ground that the findings of the jury were contrary to the law and the evidence, and upon the further ground that two of jurors, Marshall and Diner were related to the wife of one of the contestants, and the court not being advised as to its judgment at this time takes time to consider thereof.

Knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty

Dec. 4, 1919 ~~and~~ disposing mind and memory, I, Annie

First. - I desire all my debts paid.
Second. - The residue of my property, both real and the love and affection I had for him;

too for the fact that he has been a small beneficiary in any of the property of my late to maturity after my said father had met financial reverses.

The said real estate consists of, in part right, the house and lot willed me by my grandmother, Nancy Atkins, and duly recorded in the Clerk's office of Greene County, State of Virginia, and my one-fourth in the same town Stanardsville, Va., and the following personal property owned by me individually and my said one-fourth interest in the remainder of household property owned by my Mother, except, however, the articles specially mentioned as, bequests to others named.

The piano and parlor furniture, all my beds and bedding, China press, sofa two closets and practically all the household and kitchen furniture, books, etc., except the bureau and bedstead in my Mother's room which we always termed hers, though she always said she wanted me to have them. Except however, I want my brother Benjamin to have the bureau in the new room, which was his grandfather's; and my brother Linwood G., to have the one which is now in this possession, and was my grandmother's. The one in my room which I always used I want my brother Kenneth M., to have. Some minor bequests I have made to friends, I have informed my brother Kenneth of.

It would be my desire if an amicable adjustment could be made by my brothers so that the right to the home-place could be vested in one of them and not have to be sold for settlement. A suggestion of mine being that my brother Benjamin R., and Linwood G., could take for their interest in the home-place the house and lot willed me by my grandmother and my individual property relinquish their said interest in the home place to said Kenneth M., but this a matter between them.

I name my brother Kenneth M. Mitchell, as Executor of this will.
