 for her, and her family, Houses, cattle &c. as much land as she may chuse to cultivate for her amusement, Stableroom, and bariage house, and the sum of fifteen Pounds instruments of husbandry and Gardening, the Physick box, and Medicines &c. Cows, Sheep, Hogs, poultry, and such things as I cannot recollect and which may prove necessary.

It is my earnest expectation that my Children may pay her every mark of attention and respect she being most justly entitled thereto having acted in the strictest sense the part of a most faithful friend and dear relation towards me and that of the tenderest mother towards them. I more ever expect that let what will happen they will not let her suffer the want of any comfort of life. And that they will on all occasions be ready to her for any assistance she may be able to afford them in the case of their Linen and Clothing being well assured she will not relax in the smallest degree that care which they have lived in the constant experience of.
Should any of my Children fail in this duty I know not how to expect they will prosper as it will fix on them the stigma of ingratitude the worst of vices of dear &c.

Should any of my children fail to thus do, I know not how to expect they will prosper
as it will fix on them the stigma of ingratitude the worst of vices

my sons John, Daniel, Edward, George & William at such times and in such manner as may appear most convenient for them, that convenience to be judged of by my Executors and my Sister Jane - The sons advanced in my lifetime to account with out Interest for the value of what they may have received in doing which I would not have them too strictly dealt with
