

one fourth of the Cattle, Sheep and Hogs one fourth of my crop: that may be on the plantation at the fall, one fourth of the provision that may be on the plantation one half of the tools all my Cooper's tools, one fourth of the plantation tools to her and her heirs forever. Item I give to my Daughter Elizabeth Smith four Negroes namely Lelpah, Ned, Bob, and Wite with their increase second choice of my Horses second choice of Beds and furniture half of my Household and Kitchen Furniture except the Leather Beds half of my Looms half the spinning wheels and cards half the flays and Harnes one fourth of my Stock of Cattle Sheep and Hogs one fourth of the crop that may be on the plantation one fourth of the provision that is on the plantation one fourth of the plantation tools, half the tools to her and her heirs forever. My desire is that my two Daughters Sarah Smith and Elizabeth Smith have the use of my plantation where I now live so long as they live single and at their death or Marriage I give the said Land to my Son John Smith to him and his heirs forever. Item I give to my Daughter Frances Herfield six Negroes namely Lenny, Linn, Lelpah, Judah, Weight, and Ellick, and their increase third choice of Horses one cow and calf, one Bed and Furniture, to her and her heirs forever. Item I give to my Son William Smith twenty Pounds in Cash to him and his heirs forever with half my wearing clothes.

the remainder of my Estate that is not before given away I devise to be equally divided between my four Daughters namely Sarah Smith, Elizabeth Smith, Francis Winfield and Rebecca Smith of every kind whatsoever except my stills and Lard and Wheels Saus and Augers I lend to my two Daughters Sarah and Elizabeth Smith as long as they shall live single and then divided between the above mentioned Sarah Smith, Elizabeth Smith, Francis Winfield and Rebecca Smith to them and their heirs forever. Item I also give to my two Daughters Sarah Smith, Elizabeth Smith two double wove counterpanes a piece that they have now in possession Lastly I do constitute and appoint my son John Smith Executor to this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal this Eleventh Day of March One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Nine I devise there be no Appraisement to my Estate David Smith (S.S.) Sealed published and declared to be my last will and Testament in presence of

James Mabry Wm Pettway
Jed Wilkinson John Pettway

Greenfield County Court April 1799. This Will was proved according to Law by the Oaths of James Mabry William Pettway and John Pettway Witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded And on the Motion of John Smith the Executor therein named who made Oath that he was the said David Smith's Son and John Reeves his Securities acknowledged Bonds in the penalty of ten thousand Dollars with inhibition as the said David Smith's last will and Testament in full

as long as they shall live single and then divided between the above mentioned Sarah Smith, Elizabeth Smith, Frances Winfield, and Rebecca Smith to them and their heirs forever. Item I also give to my two Daughters Sarah Smith, Elizabeth Smith two double wove counterpanes a piece that they have now in possession Lastly I do constitute and appoint my son John Smith Executor to this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal
this Eleventh Day of March One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Nine I desire there be no Appraisement to my Estate. David Smith (L.S.) Sealed published and declared to be my last Will and Testament in presence of

James Mabry Wm Pettway
Jed Wilkinson John Pettway

Greenville County Court April 1799. This Will was proved according to Law by the Oaths of James Mabry William Pettway and John Pettway Witnesses thereto
and ordered to be recorded And on the Motion of John Smith the Executor therein named who made Oath thereto and with James Mabry and John Pettway his Securities acknowledged Bonds in the penalty of Ten thousand Dollars with condition as the Law directs Certificate was granted him for obtaining a probate thereof in due form. Teste Nathaniel (N. Cur.)

Examination and Appraisement of the Estate of Peter Clark dec. taken the 11th Day of February 1799