my sense and memory do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following (to wit.) I lend to my daughter Elizabeth Vincent Powell one feather bed and furniture during the time her son Howell is under the age of twenty one years, and then I give the same to him and his heirs forever. — All the rest and residue of my estate of whatsoever kind, and wheresoever found, after payment of my just debts, I give and devise to my children Richard, and Eleanor Vincent Powell, to be equally divided between them, their heirs and assigns forever. Lastly I hereby appoint my Son Richard Powell Executor of this my last will and Testament, and request that my estate may not be appraised, and that no security may be required of him for the faithful performance of his Trust. In evidence hereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this seventeenth day of September eighteen Hundred and one.
