In the Name of God amen: I Benjamin Hall of Halifax County Northern Parish and State of Virginia being in perfect mind and memory, but weak in body do make this my last Will and Testament in words and manner following first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it me and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent and christian like manner. And as touching such worldly goods as it has pleased God to bestow upon me I give and bequeath in the following manner. First of all it is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid. Item I lend to my beloved wife Wilmarth Hall the following property, to wit, The land and plantation whereon I now live as also Harry, James, Jude and her child now at her breast one black horse called Norton, one cart and oxen two cow and calves one sow and pigs & pair of my best cut heys, six very fine good feather bed and furniture six chairs one oak and Table and chest and all my kitchen furniture all of which it is my will and desire she should quietly and peacefully enjoy during her natural life. Item I give and bequeath to my son William Hall all that part of my Estate that I have now possessed him with to him and his heirs forever he not to enjoy any part of my Estate further. Item I give and bequeath to my son Schuchling Hall all that part of my Estate that I have now possessed him with to him and his heirs forever he not to enjoy any part of my Estate further. Item I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Hall all that part of my Estate that I have now possessed him with also the whole of my land whereon I now live after the death of his mother and marriage of my two daughters that are now single he to live on and enjoy the same premises as he now does also one negro boy called Leo to him and his heirs forever he not to enjoy any part further. Item I give and bequeath to my three daughters, to wit, Catty Miller, Sally Hall and Eliza Viny Hall all that part of my Estate not herein before mentioned both real and personal after the payment of my debts before mentioned to them and their heirs lawfully begotten of their heirs, the above mentioned Catty Miller to accomplish of all that part of my Estate which she both hitherto had in possession when a division is made also it is my will and desire that all that part of my Estate which I have lent to wife and not herein otherwise given should after her death be divided as above mentioned. And in case either of my daughters should die without heir or heirs as above mentioned the Surviving ones to enjoy their equal part. Having disposed of all my Estate I do constitute and appoint my son William Hall my whole Executor to act at discretion with this my last will and Testament hereby giving all other wills or wills hitherto by me made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this first day of January on thousand eight hundred & three.

In the name of God amen I Anne Row Robertson of the County of Halifax & Commonwealth of Virginia, being in health and of sound disposing mind and memory — and deeming it necessary and right which I have with these faculties to make such arrangement and disposition of my estate as I wish to take place after my death: Do make constitute and assign this present writing to be my last will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say, — Item — It is my will and I do order and direct, that my whole estate both real and personal immutably on my dease become vested in the hands of my friends John Black & Henry C. Edman Gentlemen to whom, or the survivor of them as the case may be, I give full power and authority to take the same into their possession, and to use, to, and for, the following purposes: viz^t, I wit. — In the payment of all my just debts, which I desire may be faithfully performed, in such manner as my said trustees, who are also herein after named as Executors to this my last will and Testament, shall deem most proper; and Secondly — for the use, benefit, and behoof, of my daughter Peggy Brough; wife of Thomas Brough; as is herein after mentioned & explained — Item — The aforesaid John Black and Henry C. Edman as trustees for the purpose aforesaid or the survivor of them, shall exclusively have right, to hold and occupy, during the present coverture of my said daughter Peggy Brough, the whole of my said Estate — And to apply it in such manner as they may deem most conducive to profit, from which, my debts being first paid, as aforesaid, and necessary charges and expenses deducted: — a support and maintenance are to be allowed to my said daughter Peggy as her circumstances, and the true intent and meaning of this my will, shall render right and necessary: Which support and maintenance, shall be continued to my said daughter certainly, while she continues the wife of the aforesaid Thomas Brough, — and also thereafter, should she survive the said Thomas, during her natural life, unless she should marry again and have lawful issue of her body, in which case, and not until then, it shall cease; and the trust aforesaid become null and void: except only, that all acts done and performed under the same previous thereto shall be valid and effectual. And that no misconstruction of the foregoing devise may be conceived, I do declare it to be my intention and desire, that under no colour or pretence whatsoever shall Thomas Brough, the present husband of my said daughter Peggy, claim, or receive, to his own use, any part of the profits arising from my said Estate, while he remains the husband of her my said daughter, either directly or indirectly; and that he be excluded any participation in the enjoyment thereof, or any part of my said estate for ever. Item — If my daughter Peggy Brough should hereafter become a widow — or her marriage with the aforesaid Thomas Brough by any lawful means, become void — and in such event she should marry again and have lawful issue of her body; — then and in that case only, I do give and bequeath to my said daughter Peggy, my whole estate of every denomination real and personal — to her my said daughter and to her heirs and assigns forever. But in case my said Daughter should marry as aforesaid and give of having issue, then it is my will & I do give my said daughter Peggy with full powers, to give and bequeath to her said husband or such other person or persons as may be her choice one moiety of my said estate, by her will to that effect in writing, and duly executed: { Thomas Brough her present husband always excepted } And I do hereby ratify and confirm whatever bequest my said daughter may so make to whomsoever she may make the same. Then, their heirs, and assigns forever. Item — If my said daughter Peggy should die without heirs of her body lawfully begotten — as aforesaid and also without being married a second time — then and in such event only, at the death of my said daughter I give and bequeath to the heirs of my late husband Walter Robertson dec^d my Estate aforesaid both real and personal, to be equally divided amongst them, and to their respective and several heirs & assigns forever. —

February Court 1803

Item. If my said daughter Peggy should marry a second husband, and in despite of hers of her body by such marriage, should die without devising one moiety of my Estate aforesaid agreeable to the pious bequest given her, in that case, I give and devise the same as in the last preceding. Item is given and devised to the heirs of Walter Robertson dec^d. — But in case she should make such devise, then only the remaining moiety of my said Estate, and descend to the heirs of said Walter dec^d to be equally divided as aforesaid to whom and their several and respective heirs and assigns I give the same forever. — Lastly I do nominate & appoint my friends the aforesaid John Clark and Henry C. Coleman Executors to this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void, all former thereto by me made and declaring this only to be my true last will & Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty ninth day of July one thousand eight hundred and two.
