John Wall's
Will

In the name of god amen I John Wall of the County of Halifax being very sick and low but in perfect mind & memory do make this my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following Item I send unto my beloved wife Uprley Wall the Land whereon I now live containing four hundred acres and the rest of my Estate except a tract of Land lying on the waters of Jimmy fork and Tobias Creek containing four hundred Acres more or less to which I give my five Daughters to be sold to the highest bidder and the money to be equally divided among them and the Land whereon I now live containing four hundred Acres I give to my three Sons to be equally divided among them and the rest of my Estate to be equally divided among all my Children at my wife's death or marriage And lastly I nominate and appoint for my Executors my wife Charles Wall and David Bates. So this my last Will & Testament. To which I enclose this to be my hand & Seal
