

In the Name of God amen. I, John T. Clough of the County of Harrison State of Virginia, being at this time of sound mind, thanks be to Almighty God; do constitute, ordain, and proclaim the following to be my last will and Testament, in words and form following to wit:

Item first, my Will is that at my death my body shall be decently interred and that all of my just debts be paid; and if there should not be mean enough in my house, to liquidate all my just debts and pay my funeral expenses, my will is, that enough money shall be taken from the sure of my servants (now turned out to pay my just debts, and my funeral expenses.

Item second, I lend unto my wife, Ann T. Clough all of the Land which I may be in possession of at my death; and all of my personal estate and all of my household and Kitchen furniture, farming utensils, all my stock of every description my wagon, carts, all kind of tools, all and every kind of personal estate whatever; as one carriage & buggy as long as she lives.

Item third, I lend unto my wife Ann T. Clough my servant man, John Marshall, and Isaac, and my servant boys Andrew and William; and my servant women Grace, Eliza, and Lucretia and her children, during her natural life.

Item fourth, I lend unto my daughter Monetta Nelson, Clough my servant man Reuben Jones and a girl named Sarah Ellen.

Item fifth, I lend unto my daughter Martha Ann Clough, my servant man named Reuben Marshall and a girl named Alice.

Item sixth, I lend unto my daughter Martha Ann Clough, my servant man named Reuben Marshall and a girl named Alice.

Servant man named James Henry, and a girl named Abella.
Item Seventh. I lend unto my daughter James C. Clough. My Servant man Mordecai, and a boy named Taylor. My will is that my four daughters shall take into their possession, the Servants as aforementioned, at my death, which I expect to live to each as long as they live, together with the future increase of the said Servants; to each my share as I respectively live; and should either of my aforesaid daughters die without lawful issue of the body; My will is, and I do hereby give unto her surviving Sisters, Equally, and furthermore, My will is, that at my death, My aforesaid daughters shall select two disinterested persons, who shall value the young Servants which I lend to them, and if those two persons shall think there is any difference in the value of the said young Servants; My will is that enough money shall be taken from the hire of my Servants which are hired out; and the difference in valuation of the said young Servants, shall be paid unto either daughter whose portion may be by said valuation deficient, out of the aforesaid Money. My will is, that all of the Real Estate and personal Estate which consists of all Household and Kitchen Furniture, farming utensils, Stock of all kinds, tools in my Shop, one Wagon and Carts, one Carriage and one Buggy as aforementioned; which I lend to my wife Ann Clough; and also the aforementioned Servants, which I also lend unto her, during her natural life, at her death, shall be equally divided between my said four daughters; which said property I do hereby give unto my said four daughters equally and severally with the

My said four daughters; which I said property, both real and personal and I said unto my aforesaid daughters equally together with the future increase of the aforesaid servants which I said as aforesaid to my wife; at her death, I said to my said four daughters; and should either of my said daughters die without lawful issue of her body, I said her portion of the aforesaid real and personal estate to her surviving sisters equally. My will is and I give unto my aforesaid said daughters, all Bonds which are due to me, and Certificates of "The Richmond Savings Institution" to be equally divided between them and their heirs forever. I give unto my aforesaid four daughters, two land warrants (which they may see to the best advantage) to be equally divided between them to them and their heirs forever. I hereby appoint Jackson B. Valentine, Trustee to this my last will and testament, who shall be vested with certain power to this effect, viz: If either of my aforesaid daughters should marry, and her husband should mismanage her property; or in any way waste it, my will is that my aforesaid Trustee, shall demand of the said husband or husband of my daughter or daughter first; bond and such security as the said Trustee may demand, for the proper management of the property, loaned by me, to my daughter or daughters; and in default of such bond and security the said Trustee shall have full power to sell the same and secure the same for the benefit of my said daughter or daughters.

County of Hanover, by me, against John D. G. Brown administrator of George S.
