

Amended Chancery File No. 34.

Copy of the Will of John Richardson.

Hanover County, July 30th 1825.

On the 28th Inst in the last illness of the John Richardson of this County, the said Richardson, apparently sen-ing his discourse to George Fleming Esq^r and myself said that his wish was that all those who were interested in his estate should con-to their proportions to make the sum of one thousand dollars for an favorite daughter, called Jane but this gift is on condition that she lives with her mother for if this girl Jane lives with her mother I give her thing that was at a time when Mrs Peter Woot and Mrs Paul Patton relations were present known under my hand the day and date abov
