

I Mary Robinson of the County of Marion being in the full exercise of my understanding, do publish and declare this writing to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made, and intending hereby to dispose of all my estate of every description whatever. In premises I give to my Sisters Francis Robinson and Ann Robinson during their joint lives and to the survivor during her life, my undivided interest in the tract of land devised to us by my deceased brother Henry Robinson and at the death of last survivor I give the said land to my Nieces Betty & Katharine R. and Sally M. Berkeley to them and their heirs forever.

Item Out of the residue of my estate I give to each of my Sisters Francis Robinson, Mary Berkeley, and Ann Robinson and to Henry Robinson, son of my nephew John Holland one hundred dollars and to Thomas Nelson Berkeley and Mary Robinson Berkeley sons of my nephew Edmund Berkeley Jr. fifty dollars each to them and their heirs forever.

The balance of my estate I give to be equally divided among my Nieces Betty & Ann Sally M. Berkeley, Betty Jane Berkeley daughter of my nephew Edmund Berkeley Jr. Isabella & Ann Berkeley daughter of my nephew John Berkeley, Maria H. Berkeley daughter of my nephew William Henry Berkeley & William Maria Berkeley to them and their heirs forever.

Berkley, & Henry Librarian Berkley, Diller & Berkley, the latter by Ann Librarian by Mary A Berkley & William M Berkley are infants. On the motion of the proponent William Offord is appointed Guardian ad litem of the said infants and on like motions and with the assent of John Page he is hereby appointed Guardian ad litem for each Berkley one of the adults who is a lunatic, to defend his interests in this cause and therefore the said John Page acknowledges the validity of Process for said lunatics and the Court having fully heard the evidence in the cause is of opinion that the paper dated on the 13th of April 1855 without the consent of the Court of January 1855 therein annexed was without the cancellation in the eyes of the law and is accordingly declared null and void when the Testator Mary Robinson was of sound and disposing mind and memory and that the said Consent and said Cancellation were made when the said Testator was not of sound and disposing mind & memory and was devoid of testamentary capacity, and do therefore repeal the said Consent and declare the said Cancellation to be of no effect and doth establish the said paper writing of the 13th of April 1855 without the said Cancellation as the true last will and Testament of the said Mary Robinson and doth assign the same to probate and a further assize and orders that the said paper writing be recited in the paper book kept for that purpose and is accordingly so the
