Will

In the name of God amen I William Depriest of the County of Hancock being sick and weak, but of sound mind and memory do make and declare this as my last Will and Testament hereby revoking any former Will by me made.
First, it is my Will and desire that my Executors hereafter named do collect as soon as possible all the money due to me and that they discharge all my just debts as soon as possible, and after having done so, the money remaining in their hands I desire may be put to interest for the maintenance and support of my wife and Children. Item, It is my Will and desire that all and every part of my Estate be kept together in the hands of my Executors for and during the term of ten years for the joint support and maintenance of my wife and Children, unless it should so happen that my wife marries before the expiration of the ten years, in that case I lend to her the use of the Plantation whereon I now live, and during her natural life and also one third part of my negroes, and after her death I give to my son William, the land so lent to her, containing by estimation two hundred and fourteen acres, to him and his heirs forever.
Item, I give to my son Randall my Land in the County of Amherst purchased of John Depriest containing two hundred and fifty acres, to him and his heirs forever. Item, It is my Will and desire, that in case any of my Children marry before my wife that my Executors pay to the Child or Children so marrying their equal part of the money in their hands belonging to my Estate.
Item, It is my Will and desire, that in case my wife should marry and become possessor of the land and negroes, before allotted to her, on that event, that then the remaining two thirds of my negroes and other personal Estate not particularly devised, be equally divided among all my Children share and share alike until the death of my wife. I desire that the one third of my negroes in her possession be equally divided among all my Children.
Item, I give to my son Randall my large ^{family} Bible, to my daughter Betsey Jackson, my Mahogany desk and Book-case and my daughter Sally, my blackwalnut chest of drawers, to them and their heirs.
Item, It is my desire that my Executors sell my Lot of Land in Richmond as soon as the lease made to Galt and Irving, shall expire and the money arising therefrom, I give to be equally divided among all my Children. Lastly I appoint my loving wife executrix, Turner Southall and Miles Selden Executors of this my last Will and Testament.
In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my my seal this twenty-sixth day of December Ten thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven.

Bolling Hark's Will In the name of God Amen I Bolling Stark of the City of Richmond Lemake and Ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. First I give devise and bequeath unto my Son William to him and his heirs forever - Two thousand Acres of Land out of the five thousand Acres located for me by Col. James Harrod on the Ohio (not long since cavaated by John May and still depending in the Supreme Court of Kentucky, under the management of Mr. Harry Innes) my said Son William to pay the whole expence now due, or which may hereafter become due for locating, surveying, and effectually securing the title to the said five thousand Acres of Land; and in Order to enable him to do this with with greater ease and convenience I give him a Continental Loan Office Certificate for 279⁷⁷/₁₀₀ Dollars of specie value. Other two thousand Acres of the said five thousand Acres I give devise and bequeath to my Son Bolling King, to him and his heirs forever. And the remaining, one thousand Acres I give, devise and bequeath to my son Belfield to him and his heirs forever. It is my Will and desire that the aforesaid five thousand Acres of Land be divided among my three Sons as nearly equal in quality as can be, the said division to be made by two or three judicious men of known integrity, to be fixed upon and appointed by the Court of the County wherein the said Land lies, upon Application ^{from} either of my said Sons, either of their Guardians or Agent without the formality of a suit in Chancery; and the division so made I hereby declare shall be Obligatory, and binding upon all the interested parties, any Law or Custom to the contrary Notwithstanding. I also give to my said Son Belfield the following negroes, to wit, George, Daniel, Charles, Hannah, Phillis and the Son Will, to be delivered up to him on the first day of January after my death and in the mean time to remain in my Wifes possession except the two first mentioned fellows whose hire is to be considered for that year as assets in the hands of my Executors for payment of Debts &c. I give to my Son Bolling King the following five negroes, to wit, boy Dick, girl Fanny, and woman Rachel and her two Children Sarah and Isaac; those three negroes which come by his Mother he will of course be entitled to at her death, by virtue of a Marriage contract between us, Recorded in Henrico Court. I give to my daughter Clarissa Rothery, Molls Child little Fanny. I give to my daughter Frances Bland the following negroes, fellow Dick, Grace and Esther and do desire my Executors to negotiate the military Certificate for £325. due to me from John Tyler Esq. upon the best terms they can, and to lay out the money in a negro or negroes as may be judged best, and the negro or negroes thus purchased I give also to my said daughter Frances Bland. I confirm the title unto my Son William, and my daughters, Ann, Elizabeth and Clarissa in and to the several negroes I have heretofore given and put them in possession of respectively; also whatever title I may have under the Law to the increase of the said negroes. I give my beloved wife absolutely, my Chair and Knap and Chair-Horse called Sam, and Crop of every kind except Tobacco, made this year upon my Plantation in Sussex, Provided she goes thither to reside; And I lend her during her Widowhood, the use of the said Plantation together with all the Stocks of Horses, Cattle and Hogs, Carts and harnesses and implements of husbandry therein. I also lend her during her Widowhood the following Negroes, to wit, Old Will, Billy black-water Will, Jimey Maria and Moll, and all my house and kitchen furniture (except Mahogany Wardrobe) and at the expiration of her life or Widowhood — which shall first happen, I give the aforesaid Plantation together with all the Stocks of Horses, Cattle and Hogs, Carts and Harneband — implements of husbandry belonging thereto, and Corn and fodder thereon at the time of her death or expiration of Widowhood as aforesaid, to my Son Belfield to him and his heirs forever; and the aforesaid six negroes at her death or expiration of Widowhood, I desire may be divided among my Children in the following manner; Old Will and Billy to my Son William; Jimey and black-water Billy to my son Belfield, Moll to my daughter Clarissa, and Maria to my daughter — Frances Bland; And my House and Kitchen furniture to be equally divided among all my three Sons, (except the best Bed and furniture thereto, to wit, a pair of best blankets, two pair of best Sheets, best Virginia cloth counterpane and — Bedstead, all of which I give to my daughter Frances Bland, and except also my plate and plated furniture which I desire may be divided among my Children in the following manner, my silver punch Saddle and soup spoon and plated frame and Castors to my Son Belfield, my silver Table spoons and Tea spoons to be equally divided between my Son Bolling King, and daughter Frances Bland, and my silver salt spoons, and plated Salt cellars to my Son Bolling King. I desire my Executors may dispose of my Mahogany Wardrobe (excepted above out of the loan to my Wife) and with part of the money to purchase a large black Walnut Chest of draws, which I lent to my Wife during her widowhood and at the expiration thereof to be thrown in among that part of my furniture which is above directed to be equally divided among my three Sons; the surplus arising from the aforesaid Sale of the wardrobe, I desire may be laid out in a small black Walnut Chest of drawers, which I give to my daughter Frances Bland. The Crop of Tobacco made upon my Plantation this year, to be left in the hands of my Executors for payment of debts &c. &c. Being very averse to my aforesaid Plantation in Supper falling into the hands of a Tenant; Therefore if my Wife should not chuse to reside thereon herself, my Will in that case, is, that my Son Belfield should take possession thereof together with all the Stocks of Horses, Cattle and Hogs and all the implements of husbandry, which belong to or are usually ^{kept} thereon, and cultivate the same with common labouring negro fellows — three of which kind I imagine may be got for the hire his two Sawyers will command and those three with the aid of Charles and little Will will be full sufficient for the purpose especially if farther aided by a Plough-boy, which I recommend should be procured by exchanging Phillis annually for one, with some indulgent master who would engage to keep her at spinning, or other light house work, as she has a weakness in one of her wrists which puts it out of her power to labour hard in the fields; but my Will is that my Wife shall have a right to demand annually during her Widowhood of my Son Belfield the Sum of fifteen pounds Cash, for use of the aforesaid Stocks &c. and Plantation in case she acts so absurdly as to forfeit the use of them herself by refusing or neglecting to reside on the said plantation. I desire that the money due to me from Robert Armistead balance for hire of my Sawyers in the year 1786. and £35. due at Xmas next for present years hire of the said Sawyers, from Rauben George by Bond, together with what may be due to me from the Public, as a Councillor, at the time of my death, may be considered as a further aid to the fund appropriated by this Will to the payment of my debts, (of which there is an estimate here enclosed) the surplus of the said fund (if any) I give one half of to my wife absolutely, the other moiety I desire my Executors may lay out in necessary repairs and buildings upon my aforesaid Plantation in Sussex, particularly a new negro quarter to be built of the same dimensions and exactly in the same manner as the new Kitchen is, except that there need not be any window in the end, neither need there be any fire-place to the small room behind the Chimney, and that room in the new quarter had better be divided into two cabins; This House — to be placed exactly at the same distance from the dwelling house at the west end thereof as the new Kitchen is at the east end, these three Houses to be upon a line; and if the money is not expended in building the quarter, I would have the remainder laid out in erecting a 10 feet square Smaok-House to be built in the same manner as the new Smaok-House, to — range therewith and to be placed at the same distance from the other end of the dwelling House. The Note of hand of my Brother Roberts in S^c Carolina for £60. I give my Son William but do enjoin my said Son not to distress his Uncle to obtain payment. At the expiration of my Wifes widowhood I give to my Son Bolling King my silver Sugar Tongs. Lastly I desire that there may be no uppraisement of my Estate, and do appoint my friends Daniel Fisher and Robert Walker, and Sons William and Belfield Executors to this my last Will and Testament (all wrote with my own hands) and Guardians to my daughter Frances Bland and Son Bolling King, but my Will is that they and there property continue with my wife so long they remain unmarried and she remains a Widow, as they may be maintained easier in that way than any other; tho' perhaps it may be found necessary to hire out my negro fellow Dick

(Given

(given to my aforesaid daughter) as the most certain mode of procuring her a few imported articles of dress. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 20th day of November 1788.
