 parts is to be sold and divided equally, and the expiration of the ten years after my wife ——— takes her two negroes out the rest is to be equally divided amongst all my Children, but there is many a thing, that is too tedious ^{for me} to mention, that that I hope my wife will sell every thing that she can do without as I have a great deal of one thing or other ^{that will be of no advantage to her} rather than sell Delph and her increase; I hope she will spare every thing in her power as it to her advantage as well as mine; and it would be my advice to hire out them you don't want to keep and that will be lost and Delph if she an't sold which I think there will be enough without selling the negroes. Pray if there is any money left in - selling that Tract of Land that I purchased of Mr. Branch and the Remainder of my Estate, that money may be put out on Interest for my Children as they come of age, they shall have their parts of it - All my Estate both real and personal is my desire to be equally divided amongst my Children now in being, and that which my wife is now big with, to have an equal part with those now in being, and if either of my Children should die without leaving of a living heir, all the estate that they got by me shall be equally divided amongst the rest of my Children, or their children.

 My will and desire is that my poor children may have a copy of these last lines for advice - Pray think of me my dear Babes, live upright, think of your supreme maker, avoid all bad company, all tippling Houses, all Gambling, all kinds of sport whatever - Go as often to the place of worship as you can, Gambling is the greatest evil that Man ever was guilty of; it brings many evils on mankind, and many a man to the Gallows - a man has but a short time to live in this world at best; so I think my dear Babes you will think of a future state and not of this world where you are to stay so little while in, and then you are called to eternity forever. Never so pray think of your poor Father, and be good and industrious, and then you will get the good will of mankind - My will and desire is that my wife Ann Pearce and Jackson Traylor and George Williamson, should be my whole and sole Executors to my last Will and Testament
