pounds I staid to be by them remitted or paid to my sisters Isabella & Margaret Donald or their heirs, in equal proportions of fifty pounds to each; & that in one year more, that is within three years after the final payment of my debts my said wife Dorothea Donald shall pay into the hands of my other exors. the further sum of one hundred pounds Sterling, to be remitted by them to my sisters or their heirs as aforesaid, in equal proportions of fifty pounds each: If the first sum of one hundred pounds Sterling is not paid within the time limited, from thence it shall bear interest, and in default of payment of the two hundred pounds Sterling by my wife Dorothea Donald within the three years limited, then and in such case my other executors are hereby authorised and empowered to sell and dispose of such further part of my estate as will enable them to remit the sums aforesaid, with interest from the time it ought to have been paid, till it comes into their hands, and no longer, to my sisters according to the true and real intention of this will: in case my wife should happen to die before the legacies bequeathed my sisters become due, then upon the refusal or neglect of her heirs to pay the aforesaid sum of two hundred pounds Sterling, into the hands of my executors within three months after my decease, they are hereby authorised and empowered to sell and dispose of such further part of my estate as will enable them to remit my sisters their respective legacies as soon as possible without any regard to the time limited above, as it is the true interest & purpose of this will that my wife should be absolutely possessed of all my worldly estate, my debts and the legacies above mentioned being first secured in manner the most agreeable to her therefore in the disposal of my effects, I would desire that such parts as she shall approve of, may be the first put to sale, & so on until the purposes of this will are wholly completed: For the due performing of which, I hereby constitute & appoint my wife Dorothea Donald, James Buchanan, Abraham Bowley, Fortunatus Lydnor, & James Loeain Exors. of this my last will and testament, revoking all others by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 18th of July 1776.

Will.

In the name of God amen; I John Turpin of the County and parish of Henrico, being in my perfect senses, praised be God, do give and dispose of all my worldly goods and estate in manner and form following - viz: Impr - I lend unto my wife Hannah Turpin, all my Lands with all its appurtenances, profits and emoluments, as long as she lives my widow, for the support, maintenance, and schooling of my children. I also lend her the rest of my estate what may remain after the payment of my just debts, for the same time and for the same purpose that I lent her my lands; but if she marries my will and desire is that she shall possess but the third part of my estate whether real or personal; in case of her marrying I desire my executors may do with the other two thirds as they may judge most for the benefit of my children. I also give it in the power of my executors to sell that part of my estate they may judge most prudent for the payment of my just debts, Land only excepted. Item. My will and desire is, that at my wife's decease, my lands with all the residue of my estate may be sold, and all outstanding debts be collected and equally divided among my children, namely Betsey Talman, John, Sarah, Beverly, William, and Thomas. And lastly, I constitute and appoint Michael Turpin, and Austin Talman executors, and my wife executrix of this my last Will and Testament. In the name of God amen I Isaac Younghusband of Henrico County, Virginia, of Sound mind and memory, do make make this my last will and testament in manner following: That is to say, I wrote this with my own hands and hereby revoke and sett aside as null and void all other wills by me at any time made before this. First I give freedom to a negro woman called Bess about 65 years old, likewise to her daughter a mulatto called Kitty some years ago set free by me and recorded in Henrico Court. I likewise manumite and set free after my death Rachel a woman the daughter of Mirtella to whom I gave to Pleasant and he he now owns the Mirtella. I likewise give freedom to Betty a mulatto the daughter of the above named Kitty. I likewise give free to Absalom the son of Mirtella as above; likewise to a boy called Ebenezer after they reach the age of twenty, till then they are to serve my son Pleasant. Absalom is now about 12 years old, and Ebenezer is seven. All the rest is to be free the moment I am dead. I now give to my good old negro woman called Bess one house in town which is now rented by two mulattos Judah & her sister at two dollars per month, standing on the lot where Blacksmith shop is: I likewise give her to be paid every month the twenty dollars per year, that is, ten dollars every six months. But be it always understood the house given to Bess is only for her natural live, then it is to come back to my son Pleasant. This ten dollars per year to be paid Bess is to be paid by son Pleasant for which I mortgage every thing hereafter given to him

Written with my hand
