Brim in this County, the use of said land during her life, on this condition, Robinson Lord with his wife and children go from of the land at least ten miles in six months time, as I am sure she cannot live with him there. I likewise on the same condition give her twenty dollars p^r year to get her Sarah Dean bread, but neather of these gifts to be made on the land lent her to be void if said Lord lives nearer her than 10 or 7 miles; this I do to make Sarah Dean live with comfort till she dyes, as I am sure she cannot if he stays near her.

I am sure it is expected I should say something of the woman I had the misfortune to marrie called Mary Pleasant. I thought her a whore the first ten minits I was in bed with her. In ten days I found all the markes on her that all woman have that has had a child. I aske her how they came, She answered by the col lick. I told her Bro^r Rob^t his wife the wife asked my how them markes came. She told her by boys. I now appeal to every honest woman, every docter if they could come by rather in her groin and lower part of her belly. I beleave she has a child before she married me, as much as I beleve I must, and at present I think I cannot live one month. She knows I could not lay with her the 2^d night I was so well convinced of her being a whore the first night. Some time after marriage I came home, found her in ill humour, I over myself a bed in the next room. At day break I heard a whispering in her room, I got up without noies and saw Colo^l Rob^t Goose then a young man, on his knees at her bed side. I laid down and watch my Gentle^l Rob^t Goose, I now appeal to himself whether he did not go out like a thief I could not hear him, but he shaded the light under the door, walked the landing, turned back I met him & he would have me to believe he had just come over. He has owned his visit to Mrs. Young, husband was when I catches him was before day break and sun rise.

Well I give to that whore called my wife Colo^l Robert Gooder. I do more, I give her amore Colo^l Nath^l G. Morris, for whom she knitted a purp with his name, made him a bed quilt when he has not one half bill to pay but bodily labour, and to advise her to rob me. Her oath is now on the house witness^d by James Swain if I know of your husband as well as he did I never would suffer her to be in my sight if I could help it. I give her the old wolf in the skin. The Bless hand TP. her Brothe

In witness whereof, Court of the said County, at the Court House, on the 8th day of April 1795, the said Isaac Younghusband, deceased, was granted him for obtaining letters of administration on that part of the estate of Isaac Younghusband deceased, and administered by Thomas Younghusband, in due form of law.

lotto, houses, negroes not sold free, all horses, cattle, sheep, hoggs, all the plantation tools. In short I give him every thing be it where it will, first to pay my Debts to sell any or every part he pleases; that is I appoint him my sole and only executor and every thing I can appoint him to pay my Debts and to sell any land to pay them all the household furnitor, all the silver spoons of all sorts, and I beg he will not give his sister as she is called any thing that was mine as I wish no Depocrite, no fitt taking deceitfull creature like her mother, and Mr Jordan, to ever to have the least atom of any thing I may leave.

But lastly, I hope I beg you to ^{take} care of a child of Kitty called Elee - She is now two and half years of age. I beg you to allow to old Bess for the use of the said child ^{Elee} ever year ten dollars every six months, or twenty dollars per year. This I hope is my last request and I have not a doubt but you will comply with it, if you do not mar some fitt taking Breemson who will rule you with rod of iron, and steal every thing she can as your mother did for your family and to support the Quaker meeting.

My best blessings & wishes I leave you, but think of the Goddes Providence and you will have enough to carry you with honor, honor and ease through this world.

I now sign this my last Will & Testament, all wrote with own hand and signed every page with my name this 24th Janue 1795

Thomas Pleasants Will.

I Thomas Pleasants of the County of Henrico, being extremely ill, but of sound mind, do make this my last Will.
 Imprimis. In the year 1794 I made a will which is in the possession of Mr. David Ross and which I now revoke. It is my desire to make provision for the payment of my just Debts & for the comfortable support of my beloved ^{wife} who has been to me a tender and affectionate Companion: I regret that the involved state of my affairs should ^{these aspects} disable me from effecting so completely as I wish. The natural right that slaves have to liberty has ever been strongly impressed on my mind and had the laws of the Country when that property first came to my hands permitted it, I should have felt less difficulty in ^{in giving them Liberty} because justice to my Creditors from whom I obtained credit on account of this property would not then have oppos'd it: Even now I have scruples about giving them at once complete emancipation, I therefore will and desire that fifteen of the slaves which may be chosen by my wife, or those acting for her may be continued on the plantation where I live called Curts to be there work'd for her benefit during her life, and then to be emancipated; and as I conceive the produce of their labor will be more than necessary for her comfortable maintenance, I request her to pay such surplus as she can spare to constitute a fund for the payment of my private Debts. It is my desire that my other Estate on a ruin which gives it the name of Baileys may be rented out together or in parcels by my ex^r & the rent to be applied as a fund for the payment of my private Debts. It is my will and desire that as several of my Negroes are made over in trust to Harry Beth and John Henry to secure the payment to Col^o William Beth of the sum of four Hundred pounds borrowed from him to purchase wheat to carry on the Mills, payment shall be made on or before the time it becomes due out of the proceeds of the wheat now in the Mills which will afford an ample fund for that purpose. The slaves being first relieved for that conveyance I desire that they may be hir'd out for the payment of my private Debts. After the death of my wife and payment of my Debts I wish all my slaves to be emancipated. All the implements of husbandry and personal Estate other than slaves on both plantations I request may be sold at the discretion of my Executors, and the proceeds applied towards the payment of my private just Debts. I was principal acting Executor, of the Estate of my Father, the Accounts of which Estate have not been finally settled owing to the procrastination of the sales of a considerable quantity of lands in Bedford and Campbell counties held by my father & his two brothers, the final settlement of which devolves on Thomas Pleasants the surviving brother who I believe is nearly prepared to close the business. Out of the money which may be in his hands I desire that the legacies due to my two sisters Sarah Parsons and Elizabeth Pleasants may be paid, that being the only fund for that purpose. I was reluctantly engaged in the administration of the Estate of Mr. Benjamin Jordan, Mr. John Marshall being my security. There has been paid into my hands on that account about four hundred pounds current money and the principal of the debts so secured that payment may be compell'd when call'd for. Mr. John Dobson of Liverpool guaranteed at my request to the creditors of Mr. Jordan in England a composition amounting to about six hundred pounds Sterling, of which a remittance has been made of two hundred and eighty pounds Sterling, the balance is promised to be remitted in the Spring, & I wish my executors to make the remittance & to proceed in the business according to the advice of Mr. John Marshall my security. They will take care to receive proper and complete documents of discharge from each creditor. I have a valuable Fishery on James river contiguous to my Estate at Raleigh, which has been rented out for several years past, for extending it I have imported two very fine fishes. My executors may either at their discretion rent out the fisheries, or haul the fishes at them.

In the course of an intimacy which has subsisted between Mr. David Ross and myself for more than twenty years, my all has been deeply involved. It has been my constant pursuit and first wish to have had this business settled many years past but no settlement of the affairs of the company has been ever made, & finding that it probably would not be made in my lifetime, I entreated Mr. Ross to let me know whether my personal Estate should be subjected to any deficiency of the Company. He has solemnly assured that this should not happen in any event whatever: And in a late settlement with the Creditors of David Ross & Co he has not insisted or they desired to involve my private property. This engagement I believe he means punctually and honorably to perform with which I shall be fully content, tho' his promises have gone farther, He has engaged that if necessary he will remain the friend and guardian of Mr. Pleasants during her life. It is now with the deepest concern I notice the conduct of a man whom I took by the hand in the hour of distress and gave him such assistance as to establish him in the Wine business, and I guaranteed the punctual remittance of the money which should fall into his hands, my letters from the House of Murdoch Turners & Co inform me that they hold me responsible for the sum of three thousand pounds. He has promised me to come forward and shew his solvency but has not done so. If he lives I trust he will be able to pay the Debt. All the real estate that I did possess of, it is my will and desire that my Executors divide equally between my sister Sarah Parsons and the children by her first and second husbands, and among the children of my Sister Elizabeth Pleasants wife of Samuel Pleasants, and the children she has or may have by him and the son of my brother John Pleasants. This division to be made so as that a third part be allotted to each family, and it is to be made after the death of my wife who is to have the whole during her life. I have rented the Norwich Mills for two years, commencing the first of October last. I wish Mr Ross would relinquish the contract for the second year. If he refuses, my execs must do the best they can with the property. At the expiration of the second year it was contemplated thoroughly to repair the Mills, and the putting down two trunks and getting timber for the repairs was to have come out of the rent I was to pay for the Mills. One of the trunks has been completed and put down, the other is framed to be put down. It was agreed that the value of the work should be estimated by judicious workmen. Contracts have been made for getting in the course of next summer the residue of the timber. If Mr Ross relieves my Estate from the contract I expect he will think proper to employ the persons I have engaged to do the work which they have undertaken. It is my desire that my much esteemed friend Doctor Geringan will receive fifty guineas in full satisfaction of all services performed by him. It is my desire that my executors pay ^{my friend} Mr John Marshall twenty five guineas as a compensation for his services for me, & my friend Doctor Geringan five guineas for his attention and friendship to me.

I constitute my friends John Marshall, William Heth, David Ross, Samuel Pleasants, Samuel Parsons and James Heron Executors of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand & Seal this tenth day of January 1796. My friend Mr James Heron has had several money transactions with me: There is now in his favor a balance I believe of near three hundred pounds; it is my request that the debts contracted for the purchase of wheat be first paid out of the sales of Flour.
