Will
R^o Anderson December 11th 1793. My will is this, That my wife Anne Anderson possess the whole of my property real personal or of whatever kind, during the term of her natural life, after the payment of all just debts. At her death I would choose the property so left, one moiety at least thereof to be equally divided between Robert & Allen & Anne his sister the other moiety to be equally divided between a half brother of mine called Joshua Morris, and his sisters and their descendants. And in case Dutch debts should be recoverable, I would have my Tract of Land in Hanover purchased of Bartholomew Sandridge, sold in discharge of a debt transferred by Hugh Walker to a Mr. Good subject of Great Britain. And I do further appoint my wife as above named sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament. It is further my will that Mrs Dudley my friend should continue in my family during the life of my wife aforesaid, and that a Legacy be given her of five hundred pounds. That my servant Jack be the sole property of Robert Allen. In Witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my hand and fixed my seal.

Jan^y 14th 1794. From the rascally treatment I have experienced from Robert Allen, I hereby exclude him from what I intended but the part so appportioned it is my will shall be divided equally amongst his relatives.

R^o Anderson

At a Court held for Henrico County at the Courthouse on the sixth day of August 1804. This last will and Testament of Robert Anderson deceased with the Codicil thereunder written were presented in Court and the subscribing witnesses to the said Will being dead Richard Fowler being sworn on the holy evangelists of almighty God deposed that he was well acquainted with the handwriting of the said decedent, and that he verily believed the name Robert Anderson to the said will and Codicil subscribed, to be the proper and entire hand writing of the said decedent. Samuel McCraw Gentleman being being sworn as aforesaid deposed that he was well acquainted with the handwriting of Robert Callaway whose name is subscribed as a witness to the said will, and verily believed the signature so subscribed, to be the proper and entire handwriting of the said Robert Callaway. And William G. Allen being also sworn as aforesaid deposed that he was well acquainted with the handwriting of William Allen whose name is also subscribed as a witness to the said will, and that he verily believed the name "William Allen" thereto subscribed as aforesaid, to be the proper and entire handwriting of the said William Allen, whereupon the said will and codicil are ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of Anne Anderson the executrix therein named who made oath thereto as the law directs and with Royall R. Allen her security entered into and acknowledged their Bond in the penalty of four thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs, Certificate is granted her for obtaining a probat thereof in due form.

In the name of God amen I Erasmus Rountree of the County and parish of Kentico being sick in body yet of sound disposing mind and memory do think it necessary to make and ordain this my last will and Testament in manner and form following to wit. Item I leave to my dear beloved wife Nancy Rountree all the Land I now possess the place I now live on during her natural life without interruption, and likewise all my Household furniture of every kind, and after her decease Item I give and bequeath to my son Littleberg Rountree the Land I now live on with its appurtenances and also my chair and Table to him and his heirs forever. Item I give to my son James Rountree one shilling sterling. Item I give to my daughter Polly Rountree one shilling sterling. Item I give to my daughter Pegg Rountree one shilling sterling. I do constitute and appoint as Executors to this my last will and Testament my friend James Hooper and Joseph Carpenter as Executors. Given under my hand and seal this 15th day of January in the year of our Lord God one thousand eight hundred and four.
