Will

I, James Goodwin of the City of Richmond in the State of Virginia, being now in bad health, but of sound mind, but not knowing at what time, it may please God to call me to another world, do make and ordain this writing to be my last will and testament. I give and devise to my dear wife Anna, so much of the lot of ground on which I now live that I bought of Doct.^r Philip Turpin, as is included within the following boundaries, to wit: Beginning on the street at the south west corner of the said lot of ground, running thence down the said street, One hundred and thirty feet. Thence in a line, parallel to the front line of the said Lot of ground forty feet, beyond the north end of my dwelling house on the said Lot, thence in a line parallel to the street aforesaid, to the front line of the said Lot of ground thence along the said front line to the beginning. I also give and bequeath to my said dear wife, all my household furniture, and chattels, except the silver plate herein after mentioned. So much of the lower part, of my lot of ground aforesaid bought of Doct.^r Turpin, next to Shockoe Dock, as shall be needfull for the payment of my debts (as nearly as may be) shall be laid off into lots by my executors, herein after named, and the said Lots, shall be sold by my said executors, and conveyed to the purchaser or purchasers, and the purchase money applyed in payment of my debts. All the residue of the Lot of ground aforesaid bought of Doct.^r Turpin, I give and devise it to my son John Goodwin, if he be alive, and shall return to the City of Richmond in Virginia within five years from the day of my death. And I also give and bequeath to my said son all my silver plate marked with the letters G. M. G. or with the letters M. M. provided my said son, be now alive, and shall return to the City of Richmond, in Virginia, within five years from the day of my death. But if my said son be now dead, or if now alive shall not return, to the City of Richmond in Virginia, within five years from the day of my death; then, and in that case, I devise and bequeath to my aforesaid wife, that portion of the lot of ground aforesaid devised to my said son, as also the silver plate bequeathed to him: I appoint Chas. Copland & Hugh White, executors of this my last Will and Testament. Witness my hand and seal this 16th day of September 1807.

Agreeable to the order of the County Court of Henrico Henrico removed the undersigned commissioners met at the Counting house of Mr Widdell M. Lewis at Rockets on the first day of April 1808. proceeded to the examination of his accounts as executor of Francis Lewis dec^d and having duly and attentively examined and considered the same are of opinion that they have been correctly kept, and are supported by proper vouchers as far as then various nature would permit the find the balance due Francis Lewis's estate to be three thousand and seventy nine pounds 12/9 - one fifth part of which is £605. 18. 0 1/2 we find to be the proportion due each of the legates. And the negroes being drawn for. Grace, Mary, & Cassar fell to the share of Hudson Lewis which were found to be £2. 4. 0 short of his proportion according to valuation. Given under our hands the day & year first above written.
