Jr. Banks

Will.

In the name of God Amen

I John Banks of the City of Richmond in this State but now residing at the Sulphur Springs in the County of Greenbrier being in sound mind do make this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills and bequests &c.

First I desire that when it shall please the allwise disposer of all things to call me hence that my funeral be conducted with the least possible expence consistent with Decency.

2^dly That all my just Debts may be satisfied without delay;

3^dly I bequeath to Mariah Stanton who has condescended to live with me only in appearance as my wife who is the mother of all my Children, and whose conduct to me leads me to believe she is deserving all my gratitude who now is mistress of my House and goes by my name, I bequeath to her the said Mariah Stanton otherwise Banks all my Household furniture, Plate Linen, in short every thing within my house save my money and Papers, and I further bequeath to her the said Mariah one third of all the specie and Bank Notes there may be found in my possession at my Decease so that the amount of the same shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, having by a former Act made other provision for her during her natural life, after which it is to be considered as part of my Estate. 4thly I bequeath the residue of my property of every kind whatsoever whether real or personal either in the United States or in England or in whatsoever places or place it may be found unto my Children by the aforesaid Mariah Stanton or Banks share and share alike to be paid to them on their attaining the age of Twenty one except in the instance of her eldest son John Banks to whom the payment must be protracted until he has attained his twenty fourth year, but this aforesaid equal distribution of my property to the Children of the aforesaid Mariah Stanton or Banks is to be subject to this deviation that is to say should the amount of my Property exceed the sum of

of two thousand Dollars apiece to each of them in that case it is my Will and desire that the excess should be equally divided among the Male Children of the said Maria meaning that the females Children shall in no wise be benefited by this my Will than in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars. 3^{thly} And whereas by the Will of my Deceased father Thomas Greatbanks commonly called Banks who died about the year of our Lord 1790. at the House of my Sister in Savage Gardens in the City of London Eliza Lamb, a Copy of which Will being now lodged in my Iron Chest by virtue of which Will I am entitled to one complete moiety on the death of my mother of all his Estate Real or personal of every kind whatsoever and also all my Right and Title to the other moiety of my said Father's Estate &c. by the death of the aforesaid Elizabeth Lamb who was the wife of Daniel Lamb now supposed to be living on the River Thames near Swan Street Cheapside in the City of London I do by this Will and bequeath to the aforesaid Children of the said Maria Lamb commonly called Banks all my Right Title and inheritance arising from the Will of my said Deceased father in the form and distribution before mentioned. I appoint James Harrington at present my Companion at these Springs but who intends shortly to leave these States to reside for the future in England, also William Fenwick, John Foster and William Marshall Esquires of the City of Richmond to be my Executors to this my last Will and Testament earnestly imploring their friendly attention to prevent my poor Children from their pecuniary situation being by any means hindered to the meaning of these presents deprives of the full benefit of them. Lastly It is my desire that no advantage shall be taken from any want of legal formality in this my last Will it is written in haste but the principle is founded on reflection with the ardent hope that no subterfuge can do away the fair meaning and intention of it. In Witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the whole written with my own hand at the place called the Sulphur Springs in the County of Queenborough the seventeenth day of September one Thousand Eight Hundred & Four.
