

In the Name of God Amen

~~The~~ Last will & Testament of one John Rowen being sick & weak of body, but of perfect sound mind & memory, praised be God for ever. This my last will & testament in witness & to prove & following in a following & making bond, together with our witnesses by me personally made.

In witness I doo give my soul to god my maker & Redeemer, without doubtly believing of the men not worth the passion of our saviour Jesus Christ I shall have pardon & remission for all my sins & offences & any thing to the death to be lived after a Christian & decently accompanied by my wife

& as for what estate I have pleased God to bestow upon me, I dispose of as follows I leave I doo give & bequeath unto my wife for her portion some to my daughter now living now named Anne with all her household goods ornaments to her father on any other way he may think good,

I leave I give & bequeath unto my daughter Anne some silver & gold though I have no portion left to wear for my sake, & to leave two cows bound on, one the younger & the other old, I will behold of my daughter I shall have the bring ing up of the two sons of the deceased for price & the managing of these estates, & at the last hereafter when the of relations shall be in them to the utmost of his ability each one gett them to the longest life & end, & in the mean while paying them up in the fear of god

I doo give & bequeath unto the two orphan children & for price one forther two orphans Robert & the orphans of John Rowen with they life I doo give & bequeath unto John Rowen one black up of the. I have made off the same of the Jungren & his wife, & mother of the & at the same year, I have sold & disposed off all such timber, & am rather in a, & further it into somewhat at my own discretion for my former estate, as they are under judgment, I do think it will be better at the present time that I have bought the Christ off, two gods of each, & have sold him, & we have for him for, & at the same time, I have the right of the other gods of each before any other man in with the same. That this is my last will & for the same of the same, & the same I have done, the first is B. B. A.
