

In the County of Middlesex, in the City of Richmond and Parish of St. Andrew, in the County of Middlesex, I, the undersigned, Robert London, do hereby certify that I am of sound mind and memory, and calling to mind the certainty of death, and precarious nature of human life, I have made, devised and constituted this my last will and testament, that is to say, I recommend my soul to Almighty God that gave it, through the merits of my blessed Saviour, and my body to be decently buried in Christian burial, at the discretion of my Executors and as to my worldly estate, I dispose of it in the following manner to wit, in the first place I desire that all my Just debts may be paid, after the discharge of said debts, all my estate both real and personal, I give and bequeath unto my dear beloved Sister Anne London of the City of London, except such as I beareth in case of her death, before I depart this life myself I desire that my son (my nephew) Robert London of the County of Middlesex, in the City of Richmond, do

It is my will that my son (my nephew) Robert Lowder of Southampton in Great Britain, be intitled to have and shall receive the said Estate both real and personal as before mentioned. I then I give and bequeath unto my brother Richard Lockyer (of New Castle upon Tyne in Great Britain) two Shillings. I then I give and bequeath unto Richard Spottiswoode of London, the sum of Twenty pounds Current, and doth bear by word and old style bequeath to Henry.

I then bequeath unto my of August in the Signed, sealed and in presence of Witnesses
Subscribed

and witnessed at the City of Richmond)
the 15th day of August 1779

...the ...
...the ...

This debt was proved by the oath of Alexander W. ...
...to be ...
...and ...
...together with ...
...and acknowledged their bond in the presence of one thousand persons, conditioned as the San Diego ... was granted them for obtaining a probat thereof in due form.

Given

Teste

Adams Craig C. C.

...of the ...

...the ...