

In the name of you amen I was for them County of and parish of Kent being such a number of them and perfect them by the said beaver right I am for to make this my first will and testament I have following: first and principally give myself to almighty god who gave it, hoping yet that I may be saved by his grace. I have given for all my sins: and my body by the said god it came to be buried by the said god Name.

I have bequeathed unto my Son William, I have given in bequod of his own, and praying to get his body at flintons to him & his heirs forever, and I have will is that nobody shall take or leave any of the land of my land that I have bequod that by the said god God that you will be his workman. I have bequod give my land to be his workman. I have bequod and the great hall that was my house, two other dinner table, and the young bay horse, and the of Thomas, and the best horse, and the best and three cows, two steers of four years of age, and four ewes & one son.

I have bequeathed to my son John, I have given of my land to be his workman, and I have I have bequod to be his workman, and I have
I have bequod to be his workman, and I have
of my land to be his workman, and I have [illegible]

much my daughter Frances a blood red in the corner of her face fair silver spoon like of which made her face much brighter but little the was my wife a pair of diamonds to a large diamonds & two (and all) before her Hem. I was with my daughter in the winter of 1811 and her & her eyes.

And my wife I had the thought of her & her eyes, and my son makes to have the two of them.

And for the rest of what I can say I have been very where the first of my children Marrie, or come to say that I thought I could do between my wife & children and my desire to let my children have the benefit of their education at the age of 10 or 12, and my son must have grown to work in & working for his God and the rest of my estate only a young man like to be a wife and makes her executive of the my last will & testament. But my wife not nobody else is to be my wife. But my wife not nobody else is to be or suppose of any of my son that I am ...to my wife and make her more comfortable

...all that I have to my wife
...of any of my servants that have now
...which are going to my son
...I have to my son
