

In the Name of God Amen I, John [unclear] of the County of Henrico being ill and weak of body but of sound and composed mind ~~and~~ memory being by to Almighty God, and knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make public and declare this my Last Will & Testament in manner and from following: That is to say: first and principally I recommend my soul into the hands of God that you it, and for what worldly estate it hath please you to bestow upon me, after my just death and funeral charges be discharged and paid my last and desire is may be disposed of as follows, to wit: I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Bailey one Negro girl named Phillis and one parcelled out portion of the land on which she now lives to be paid her of the flour, to her and her heirs forever. My wife & was judge in that the plantation between them was to be and the money arising therefrom, with the rest of the money due in debts after the payment of my debts to be equally divided between my three sons John to Bailey, John Bailey & Joseph in and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

and I left of the land of them a part of land to my

...to be paid when any of my children shall die before marriage, my wife Frances Bailey shall give them what she deems proper of my estate lent to her, and at her death to give what she has not before disposed of among my children as she sees fit. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this twelfth day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Eighty six.

At a Meeting of the Board for Monroe County at the Courthouse in the City of Richmond on Monday the 3rd July 1886 J. Frank, Clerk.

The first was given by the Author of John Brown, Elizabeth Faneuil and Anna Bailey. The villages, Monks, and Cedars are correct. One on the notion of France Bailey is "Monks" and not the sentence of death pronounced upon the said Heron, and when the said Heron was executed, the said Heron was the property of the said Heron, and the said Heron was the property of the said Heron.
