

Handwritten text, likely a will or deed, mentioning "I do hereby give and bequeath" and "to my beloved wife".

Handwritten text, likely a will or deed, mentioning "I do hereby give and bequeath" and "to my beloved wife".

Item I declare by this my will that I do bequeath unto my eldest daughter Elizabeth Dutton the above named plantation whereon I now dwell after the decease of my dear and much beloved wife to her and the heirs of her body for ever but if the said Elizabeth my daughter have no husband at my death then the said plantation to return to the heirs of my body.

Item I declare by this my will that I do bequeath unto my youngest daughter Mary Dutton the sum of three hundred acres of land lying and situate as aforesaid to and the heirs of her body without any other formality.

Item I declare and do bequeath unto my son Anthony Dutton one hundred acres of land lying and being in the same tract as the above said plantation and more acres above mentioned to him and his heirs forever and to the heirs of the same after the decease of the wife the said Anthony Dutton to receive from the heirs of my body the same.

Item I declare and do bequeath by this my will the plantation lying and being situate as aforesaid to the heirs of my body.

Henrico County, Virginia Wills; Deeds, 1717-1726
www.virginiawills.com

Plantation lying and being situate on the great branch of the Manockens river which containing four hundred acres with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, unto my son Isaac Oulbit to him and his heirs for ever;

I am, dear and beloved ones, my dear
 Anne, Mother and for my dear son,

I have by this my will made bequest unto my eldest daughter Agnes out of which she is married and free of the same and my youngest daughter Maria out of which she is married

6. I am to declare by this my will and Testament that all the Negroes and Movable Estate belonging to me to be divided in equal portion unto my three named Elizabeth Didoit Mary Ann Didoit and Isaac Didoit
After the Decease of My well Beloved wife

I do here ordain my dear and well beloved wife to be Executrice of this my will declaring that this is my last will and Testament which I will have Executed after my death and to be lawfully Executed after my Death Denouncing all laws and Maxims which shoud come to the Contrary of this my will in ending wherof I have hereunto set my hand & seal in presence of witnesses In Manakin Town King William Parish the

2^d Day of May Anno Domini 1726

igned sealed published and declared for his last will and Testament in presence of us

PIERRE DUBOIS

Jean Jourdain

& Jean Pierre Gilbois

Antoine Benoit

M^r Young

at a Court held for the County of Henrico October 3rd 1726
This will was proved by the Oaths of John Jones and John Peter Bitter who were thereupon admitted to Record
Test Henry Woodhouse