

(1770)
In the name of God Amen I Samuel Dutton Gentleman of Henrico County being of sound mind, but calling to my memory the uncertainty and mortality of man, think it proper to dispose of the Estate wherewith, kind providence hath been pleased to bless me in marriage and from following, this

First, It is my Will and desire that the marriage contract or settlement entered into between me and Philip Tabb Gentleman in trust for my beloved daughter, shall be strictly & literally adhered to and fulfilled by my Executors hereinafter named.
I Desire my Lands in Henrico County on which are Coal pits known by the name of the Deep run Coal pits to my sons William, Samuel, Dance, Philip, & Claiborne Dutton to be equally held by them, as tenants in common to them and their joint Heirs, Executors Administrators and assigns forever. It is my Will and desire that the one moiety which I am possessed of, in and to the Coal pits in Chesterfield County shall be sold & so hereby devise them to my Executors to be sold and the monies arising therefrom to be

I do hereby devise them to my Executors to be sold and the money arising from the sale to be equally divided amongst my sons, Daniel, Philip, & Clarborne.
 I devise unto my son Daniel Dattel my Tract of Land containing about four hundred Acres more or less, to him & his heirs forever. And it is my request that the Deed or Conveyance which should of right been made me by the Executors of ^{my} Mother Benjamin deceased, be by them and the Heirs of the said Benjamin made to my son Daniel. I do hereby devise to my son Clarborne Dattel the Tract of Land ^{said} devised by me of Thomas Creek & Lanes in Henrico County containing five hundred Acres more or less to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath unto my Daughter Polly Walker Heirs and assigns forever a Negro Girl

 Phillis ^{the} ~~good named~~ ^{good named} Selucia with her increase to her. It is moreover my Will and desire that the said Polly Phillis & Selucia a good feather bed & furniture with ~~all~~ ^{the} ~~things~~ ^{things} bequeath to my said daughter has to age and can, to have them forever and the minority paid to each of my daughters; Polly Philadelphia five hundred pounds to be paid to them within twelve months after my decease and that the sum of one thousand pounds which my son William by bond is bound to pay to my Estate within that time it hereby appropriated to the paying off the said legacies provided Nevertheless that should either of my before named daughters be under the age of twenty one years at the time of my decease then it is my will that the Estate hereby bequeathed to her shall be equally divided among the whole of my surviving Children (my daughters being Polly (included) I devise unto my son Samuel and to his heirs forever, also my Gold Pocket Book, and it is further my wish and desire that the legacies or Estates bequeathed to my daughters shall in no wise be subjected to the payment of my Debts and whatever sums of money shall be due and due at my decease or may be due at my decease shall be due and due at my decease or may sum of money shall be due and at my decease or may hereafter become due, shall be applied to the payment of my Debt except the thousand pounds disposed of as above which will become due from my son William. I give & devise all the rest of my Estate, real, or personal not before already disposed of to be equally divided among all my sons their Heirs & assigns forever. And it is my Will and desire that the 4 Virgins amongst the my sons by me be valued and considered as part of my Estate reserving to them or either of them the privilege of keeping the said places at the appraised value as to make the share of each as equal as possible. I amos may be of.

Lastly I do hereby devise what my son William, Samuel, Daniel, Philip, & Elizabeth and their heirs may have of the said Estate and I do hereby give all power that I have or may have in and to the said last Will Testament and I do hereby give whereof I am bound to my hand and affix my seal the 10th
