William Armer of the shire of Wright County being sick and weak in body, but perfect in perfect mind do ordain this my last Will and Testament in these words following first I bequeath my soul to almighty God from whom I shal come, and my body to the earth from whence it came and for my worldly goods I give as followeth Imp¹ I give unto my youngest son Robert Armer two small new pewter dishes, containing three shillings three pounds apiece, and one new pewter basin that will hold three shillings a gallon, and one new pewter basin that will more than a peck and two small new pewter basins without brims, more over the dishes

I give upon I give to my son Robert with a shaggy rug and a pair of blankets Imp² I give unto my daughter Anne Armer one black bid that is new and a shaggy rug and a pair of blankets and one young mare with a star in her forehead

Imp³ I give to my son William Armer two young cows and two pewter dishes

Imp⁴ I give my son Thomas Armer two young cows and a list of three yards ould and my gun and sword and two cows

Imp⁵ I give unto my daughter Mary Armer one iron pot that will hold three gallons with pot hooks to it and two pewter dishes and three pewter plates and one pewter tankard

I will that what I have given to my sons be delivered unto them in kind as they come of age, and to my daughters when they come to the age of twenty years or at the day of their marriage And for the gift of my estate both with in and without I do give to my wife Mary Armer and for her use and comfort my wife Mary Armer my whole estate to be the same as will perform as with my hand and seal this twenty one day of November 1691

In the name of God Amen I John Williams of the lower parish of the shire of Wright County in Virginia being today sick and weak but of perfect mind and memory do give and bequeath my worldly estate as followeth

Imp¹ I give and bequeath my soul to almighty God my maker hoping through the merits of Jesus Christ my saviour to obtain remission for my sins through his death and passion and my body to the earth from whence I came to be decently buried by my beloved wife Anne Williams and my children secondly I give my now dwelling plantation unto my beloved wife Anne Williams during her life with all edifices and buildings thereunto belonging and after her death the said Manor house plantation to return unto my eldest son John Williams and the heirs of his body and in case he the said John Williams shall rather stay in Surrey County on the plantation that he is now habiting than to take the Manor plantation then the said Manor plantation is to be devised to my youngest son Thomas Williams Williams and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten and in case John Williams desires to his Manor plantation then Thomas Williams to enjoy that plantation in Surrey County where John Williams is now habiting
