In the year 1728 I Richard West being at W^m Greens that he showed me his Will and owned it to be his Will and sometime after his Death his wife sent for me and asked me to look for her Husbands Will and in his Trunk there I found it and to the best of my knowledge this is the same Will he first showed me

Richard West
William Pilkington aged about 30 years being sworn Deposeth & says the Testator showed him a paper which William Green said contained his Will and he further saith That this Will Exhibited now in Court is the same paper and Written by the Testators own hand

William Pilkington
The above Depositions of Rich^d West & W^m Pilkington were sworn in open Court & are admitted to record Test James Dugles & Co
