

I, Edward Wilmoth, being at this time very weak in Body but perfect of memory.

Inprimis. I do by these presents make my beloved wife Annis Wilmoth, my full & whole executrix of all my goods and chattels in Virginia or elsewhere, particularly I give unto my wife af'd four milch cows, a steer, and a Heifer that is on Lawns Creek side, and a young yearling Bull. Also I give unto my daughter Frances a yerling Heifer. Also I give unto my son John Wilmoth a cow calf, and to my son Robert Wilmoth a cow calf.
Also if any of these children dye before they come to age it is my will the said cattle shall come to the survivor. Also the plantation that we are upon I give unto my wife and all my Household Stuff & Moveables. Also I intreat John Jackson & George Cobarft to be my Overseers for the performance of my last Will and Testament, being a true Act and Deed of mine own. Witness my hand this 15th day of February, 1647.

EDWARD WILMOTH.

Teste: John Jackson, John Carter.
