

I, Humphrey Clark, of the Isle of Wight county, Cooper, being sick and weak in Body, but of perfect memory.

And for the rest of my Worldly estates after my debts paid, I do dispose of in manner and form following:

I do give unto my son John Clarke and to his heirs, all Lands whatsoever that do belong to me by any Rights, Patents or otherwise whatsoever, with the best Feather bed unto me now belonging, with what furniture belongs to it, with one half of what cattle are mine. And the other half I do give and Bequeath to my wife Jane Clark.

Item. I do give more unto my loving wife Jane Clarke, all my Household stuff with all other my furniture in the house, as Linen & Woolen, only such excepted as are in this my will specified.

Item. I do give unto my daughter in law Jane Brunt, one feather bed with what furniture belongs to it. I do acknowledge that six hundred pounds of tobacco due from John Shery doth belong unto Jane Brunt.

Item. I do give unto my two kinswomen Jane How and Mary Clarke, each of them one cow calf to be delivered this Fall. And whereas Mary Clark is a Covenant-Servant for seven years I do remitt and give her three years of her time.

Item. I do desire and appoint that my servants shall be kept together and the one half of the benefit of their Labour shall be made use of for the maintenance of son John Clarke at school.

Item. I do give unto Thomas Holmes and John Williams
each of them one yearling Heifer.

Item. I do give unto William Godwin, John Williams, Welchman and my servant, each of them one Cow calf to be deliv'd the next Fall after this.

Item. It is my will that my wife Jane Clark shall not make away, nor give at her decease any part of this estate from my son John Clark, but at her decease all which I have left to her for her maintenance to be properly his. Likewise I do make my loving wife Jane Clark my lawful executrix and no other.
And I do appoint my well beloved friend Robert Bird, Overseer of this my last Will and for the performance of it to all true intents and purposes. Thus I do Renounce and Revoke all former wills, nullifying them: and Ratifying & confirming this.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 3d
March, 1655.
