In This my last will and testament I desire that (after all my just debts are paid) The whole of my property, both real and personal be loaned to my wife Judy Holmes, so long as she remains my widow, and if she marry, so long as she may live, for the support of herself and our children by our marriage. In the event of her marriage or death, I give to said children all of said property to be equally divided amongst them, and I hereby name my said wife The Executrix of This will with the request that she be permitted to qualify without giving security -
