In the name of God, Amen!

I, Alexander Fleet Sr. of King Queen County, Virginia, hereby revoking all former wills made by me, do make this my last will and testament as follows, to wit:-

First of all, I direct that all of my just debts be paid and subject thereto I give and devise all of the estate both real and personal, which I may leave at my death to my beloved wife Martha, during her lifetime, with power and authority if the income or profits thereof be insufficient for her support, to use such portion of principal, as may be necessary for the purpose - and her death I give and devise to my daughter Sally B. Fleet one hundred acres of my tract of land called "Melbourne" to be laid off, for her, adjoining the land which I have lately conveyed to my son Christopher B. Fleet, so as to include the buildings, yard, garden and and wood land enough for its support, and a sufficient front, on the main road; and the balance of my tract of land I give and devise to my daughter, B. P.
Bagby, and my son Alexander Fleet Jr. to be divided equally between them; and I direct that whichever of them in such division shall receive that portion the said land lying next to Fleetwood (which will without buildings of any kind) shall have the right of removing from my yard thereon, the house - known as the old Kitchen or Fanny's house (being a double house, with a chimney in the middle), and the devise hereinbefore made to my daughter Sally B. is to be subject to this right. At the death of my wife I give to my son Alexander Fleet Jr. and to my daughter Sally B. Fleet, each, out of my personal estate, a feather bed, with stand and furniture; and the balance of my personal estate, I direct to be divided equally among my sons Christopher B. and Alexander, and my daughters Betty P. and Sally B. and my stepson James R. Butler.

Having already conveyed to my son Christopher, his full share of my real estate I direct that he shall pay off, one fourth of whatever debts, I may leave unpaid at my death: he is bound jointly with me, for these debts, which were incurred, by us, in some timber transactions, in which we engaged, but upon the payment of one fourth of them by him, I direct that he shall be exonerated from further liability to my estate, on account of them, and that the remaining three fourths shall be paid out of my estate.

I appoint my son in law, John R. Bagby, and my son Christopher, my Executors, and I direct that no security be required of them - and I direct further that only such portions of my personal property shall be sold, during my wife's lifetime, as she may direct, or as shall be indispensably necessary in carrying into effect the provisions of this will: At her death I direct that my Executors shall sell the same (except the portions herein before specifically bequeathed) in order to effect the division thereof, herein directed. Witness my hand and seal this 26th day of February 1877.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator, Alex^r Fleet, as his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, in his presence and in the presence of each other and by his request have subscribed our names hereto, as witnesses.

In the name of God Amen!

I John Pollard of King and Queen

County do make this my last will and testament.

Imprimis

I give to my dear wife Eugenia A. Pollard my Chamber bedstead &c with the necessary bedding attached thereto, also the sewing machine lately purchased by me, also sum of Two hundred dollars in lieu of the article that she may be entitled to as my widow under 33^d Sect. of Chapter 49 Code of Va. 1873, and hope she will acquiesce in this arrangement. I also wish her to have my portrait picture now hanging in drawing room.

Item 2.

I give to my daughters Mary E. Woodward, Sarah Jane Bagby and Susan C. Woodward each the sum of fifteen dollars to be laid out by them in mourning piece to be worn by them as a memorial
