

This writing purporting to be the last will & testament of Joseph N. Stetten Sr. deceased, was produced in Court by John Newton Stetten, the Executor therein named and sworn by the oaths of B. H. Burns & J. H. Jones, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded, and in the presence of the last Printer Stetten, the Executor therein named who read with Stetten, and together with George L. Burns & B. H. Burns his securities, who justified in oath as to this self-same) entered into and acknowledged what in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500). And that as the said Court, Culpin is granted him for obtaining a probate of said will in due form,

To be

J. R. Taylor

Truly Recorded

To be

B. T. Taylor

11th July 1883
I, J. W. Munday of the County of King & Queen State of Virginia, of my own free will & accord in the presence of almighty God, and this witness, doth make this as my last will and testimony, which is as follows:
I leave to my wife Francis A. Munday, the farm on which I now live, 'Blandfield' and with it all of my household & kitchen furniture, my farming implements, one yoke of oxen, two best cows, all of the hogs, the best horse, buggy & harness, and corn, wheat and bacon enough to last her until another crop is made, This I leave to her, her life, or so long as she remains my widow, The rest of my property, I wish sold, and my undivided distribution made to all of my children except to my married children, Archibald Graham, Rosa Atkins, Mary E. Casey, Willie A. Wilson and Josephine Shorts all of them, to each and every one of them, I consider, I have given them full portion of my property during my life, at the death or marriage of my widow, I leave my farm (Blindfield), to my three younger children, with this exception, I leave to each one of my children, so long as the survivor remained, where at the house in which I now live, so long as they choose to remain, but at the marriage of either or any one of them, except the share to which the farm is left, they relinquish their right to the benefit of the same heretofore under my hand and seal this 11th day of July at Blindfield Meigs Co Green County, State of Virginia, year of our Lord 1883,

Witness

A. L. Green
 Thos G. Henshaw
 C. W. Martin
 O. S. Packer

A. W. Munday

Meigs Green County Court May 1st 1884.

This writing purporting to be the last will and testament of A. W. Munday deceased, was offered for probate and was received by the court of Meigs Co. Henshaw & C. W. Martin two of the subscribing witnesses present, and ordered to be recorded, and after reading of Francis Munday, who read with them and together with Thos G. Henshaw security (also justified in oath as to his suppicing), returned into and acknowledged about in the presence of several hundred dollars ($1200), constituted as the law directs, Certificate is granted the said Francis A. Manning for obtaining letters of administration, on the said deceased estate, with his will approved annexed in due form,

Teste
J. R. Taylor Ad
Deputy Recorder
In the
B. T. Taylor Clerk

1884 P. I have D. Gisham make this my will Testament 1st Having given to my daughter all her portion of my estate by deed recorded 30th January 1884 nothing more is given or intended for her, under my will.
I leave my daughter Mrs May Gisham, she having relinquished in my deed of her 30th January 1884.
2nd I give to my son Herbert Gisham, my watch & chain my silver pitcher goblets & writing as "his Lovers", the latter of which I obtained for a Prize Essay from the State Agricultural Society of Virginia, I request that he shall live with his mother-in-law his sister Maria J. Gisham & take care of them, but should he prefer it, I desire my executor to pay a reasonable annual pension whenever he may select in the County.
3rd I give my daughter Maria J. Gisham my tract of land called Oglington in King County containing fifty and four acres.