

In the name of God, Amen. I Catherine De widow of William Diddlake being of sound mind & dis-memory but mindful of my approaching end, Do make (and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament revoking all former Wills Testaments &c heretofore by me made That is to say First I desire my executor hereinafter to be appointed to pay out of my estate both personal and Real all of my just debts, but the personal estate is to be first appropriated for this purpose.

Secondly I give and bequeath in fee simple to my beloved Sons William W Diddlake and Miles E Diddlake all my personal estate which may remain after the payment of just debts & exp^{ts} $5.00 five dollars hereinafter to be disposed of - to be equally divided between them.

Third I give and bequeath to my Daughter Parthenia Stubbs, wife of James M Stubbs, the sum of five dollars to be paid out of my personal estate by my executor, should there be so much thereof remain in his hands after payment of my just debts as aforesaid.

Fourth I devise to my aforesaid beloved Sons William Diddlake and Miles E Diddlake to be equally divided between them, all the Real Estate of which I die seized and possessed, to them and their heirs forever. Provided however, that if either of my said beloved sons die and without issue, the survivor of them, shall take and possess the whole estate by virtue of this my last will and testament.

Fifth It is my wish and desire, that if my executor should not have funds left in his hands out of my personal estate after the payment of my just debts, sufficient to pay to my daughter Parthenia A Stubbs the legacy of five dollars ($5.00) hereinbefore, to her bequeathed, that my said beloved sons William W, and Miles E Diddlake shall pay to their said sister the sum of five dollars herein before mentioned.

Sixth I hereby nominate and appoint my executor friend Thomas D Clegg my sole executor to this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I hereunto subscribe my name and affix my seal this 22nd day of February 1868 Eighteen hundred and sixty eight

Sealed signed and acknowledged by Catherine Didlake to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who in her presence at her request in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses

This is my last will. I give my household estate of James River with everything on it to my nephew W B Broad and his heirs forever, yet subject to this condition, if he should die leaving no children legally begotten, or grand children living, or if he should die leaving no children legally begotten, I wish the said estate to go to the trustees of my sister Susan Salafers in trust for her, but if she should die then be living, to her children (and their heirs forever, and also to Amanda Thompson my sister, and if she should die then be living to my niece Kate Thompson, to be divided equally between my two sisters or if they should die then be living to be divided equally between the children of Susan Salafers then living and Kate

Xumphin, of her mother should be then dead.

I give to my friend Dr. Muscoe Gerritt (and my nephew Dr. W. S. Broadus in Trust for my sister Susan Taliaferro my Travellers Rest estate with every thing upon it. At death I give said estate to W. Taliaferro my nephew to be used for his heirs forever.

The Residue of my estate after payment of my debts I wish equally divided between the trustees of Susan Taliaferro for her, W. S. Broadus and Amanda Xumphin with this exception I give all my books to W. S. Broadus and whatever works of Art are still remaining to my sister. Paintings, vases, engravings &c.

It is my desire that the Newstead Estate should be charged with an annuity of four hundred for Amanda Xumphin as long as she lives; also that the Travellers Rest estate should be charged with an annuity of two hundred dollars in like manner for Amanda Xumphin as long as she lives.

At the death of my Sister Amanda Xumphin I desire that W. S. Broadus pay to Rose Xumphin his daughter twenty five hundred dollars, also that the Trustees of my sister Susan Taliaferro or her son W. S. Taliaferro if she should then be dead, pay to the said Rose Xumphin fifty five hundred dollars.

As to the annuity to my sister Amanda Xumphin and the legacy to Rose Xumphin, it is my intention to charge the Newstead estate and the Travellers Rest estate with the said annuity and the said Legacy in the respective ratios due by the heirs of said estates. I have in subindentment which I have in the Newstead estate including all the house hold goods pertaining I give in fee to Amanda Xumphin.

I desire, but do not exact it, that my nephew W. S. Broadus should take my name.

Written & attested by myself and signed and sealed this 14 June 1808

Talliferro my executors

Further Codicil

I desire about one eighth of an acre of land on which my family is interred at Newton to be purchased by my executors and devote in perpetuity to the purpose of a cemetery for our family, also that said land should be enclosed with a Brick wall substantial and well built four feet high and capped with stone or with brick moulded in a semicircular form so as to turn the rains and laid in hydraulic cement. I wish the wall to be permanent.

Attest for King and Queen county at the Court house on Thursday the 11th day of August 1878

The Writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William Boutwell deceased and the two Codicils annexed were offered for proof and there being no subscribing witnesses to the same, William P Graham and Charles C Potter were sworn and severally deposed that they were well acquainted with the testator and handwriting they verily believed the said writing (and Codicils and amendments) to be wholly written by the testator's own hand & thereupon the said deposing and Codicils are ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said William Boutwell deceased
