J. Charles C. Saunders do solemnly swear this my last will and testament revealing all others.

1st I gave my whole estate both real and personal after the payment of my just debts to my sister Charlotte Saunders during her life.

7th - At the death of my sister Charlotte, I give to my niece, Mary Jane Tied free from the charge of her husband twenty acres of land next to General Banks land to be cut off in such away as to injure as little as possible the rest of the farm and she is to have the privilege of moving the house in which she now lives upon the said twenty acres and at the death of said Mary Jane said land is to pass to her children.

3^d I give the rest of my real estate to be divided at into three equal parts among my three nephews Wm. Henry, Jos. Henry and Charles, but it is my wish that Wm. Henry should have the largest part if he wishes.

4th I think that all my friends rotate shall be paid at the death of my sister Charlotte, and the fund arising from the sale, after the payment of my debts, I wish used for the support of my sister Catharine Stone.

I appoint my friend H. R. Pollard executor of this my will.

Given under my hand and seal this 31st day of January 1880.
