

granted him for obtaining a patent of office with in the firm,

Teste

Geo. Taylor & Co

Truly, Respected

Teste

B. F. Taylor Esq

I George C Mann of the County of King & State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, do this 17th day of June 1881 make this my last will as follows viz -

I declare that all my just debts shall be paid and my remaining estate divided as follows I give to my son John Robert one half of my farm, known as Rockspring including about Mann as lands, and running out to the main County road, the tract is to be divided into ten equal parts and the value of the land without the buildings, by a line running east & west. The other half of this farm including the buildings, I wish to be occupied by my widow and my son Christopher, one half of it, that is one fourth of the tract, I give to my son Christopher, and the other one fourth I wish to my widow during her life, and at her death give to the children of my son Christopher, and I further direct that my widow shall have the privilege of selecting the portion desired to her, I give to my daughter Lucinda what I have paid on the farm now occupied by herself and her husband at Carlhus Stew, and two hundred fifty cens, the buildings included of the tract of land owned by good woman as Dennis. I give to my daughter Fanny, the place on which I now reside, with the request that at her death and the death of her husband that it shall remain to my grand daughter Julia. I give to my grand daughter Mary & Hardesty the remainder of the Dennis tract supposed to be from 250 to 300 cens. I leave to Jacob Carstensen what for my grand daughter Julia, the land purchased by good woman Wrights estate containing about 30 cens, and my whole interest in the mill tract and site, the proceeds of this property to be for her education & maintenance during her minority, and afterwards if she should marry and have issue, this property shall be at her death be to her children, but if she should die before marrying, then it shall be divided equally amongst my children.

 As myself and wife have for some years been living with Jacob Carstensen & wife, joining the premises, and they furnishing the table board, it is my opinion and wish that the accounts between us as debt and paid, shall be squared. We are both counting other, but if they are unwilling for the arrangement, and should charge to be made, then charge shall be made but the cost of my property then fully saved length of time I direct that my personal property shall be sold excepted items as my wishes may direct but, and the proceeds together with any money due me, shall be collected, and distributed as follows, with half of it being given, and one fifth of the balance to each one of my children, and the remaining fifth to be divided equally between my son and daughter, the portion falling to my granddaughter Julia, to be in trust and subject to the same provisions as apply to the real estate bequeathed to her.

I hereby appoint my son John B. Cannon and my son in law H. B. Cannon, executors of this my last will, and direct that when they shall see fit as aforesaid that the said shall not receive any security - Given under my hand and seal this 17th day of June 1881 -

Witnesses
Geo. Braden
Geo. Dix

Geo. Cannon (Sd)

Following and known County Court May 11th 1882, This last will and Testament of George C.
Cannon died was ~~presented~~ exhibited, & proven by the oaths of William Watson and Geo. S.
Dix the subscribing witnesses thereto and admitted to be recorded. And H. B. Cannon and John Cannon the Executors named in the said will, having appeared in Court, the said Cannon confirmed the said will by admitting and refused to take apart themselves the duties of the executor.

thereof, with the will of John B. Cantham and Jefferson S. Purcell who were on the said John B. Cantham with Jefferson S. Purcell Robert H. Dunn and Lawson Reed his securities (also just after on oath as to their sufficiency) and the said Jefferson S. Purcell with John B. Cantham and John H. Purcell the securities (also just after on oath as to their sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged separate bonds in the penalty of thirty five hundred dollars with conditions as the law directs.
 Appointed as guardian the said John B.
 Cantham and Jefferson S. Purcell for obtaining letters of administration on the said decedent's estate with his will as aforesaid annexed in and thereunto.

Teste

John R. Taylor Secy
 Truly, subscribed

Teste

B. T. Taylor Clerk