At a quarterly Court held for King & Queen County at the Courthouse thereof on ^{9th day} Decr 17th 1888

In the matter of the application for probate of a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of W. Horace Taylor deceased. On the motion of George L. Munnery and Willie A. Munnery his wife It is ordered That a jury be empaneled at the bar of this Court, to try whether the paper hitherto produced in Court as the last will and testament of W. Horace Taylor deceased, is in fact his last will and testament. And thereupon came a jury to wit. A. G. Gusham Esq. B. Fleit. J. M. Baughman B. H. Roberts. W. C. Long. R. H. Munro. A. C. Haesler, Jr.
 Norman. Ambrose Acree. C. W. Watkins, J. J.
 Lerouck and F. B. Hall who being selected by lot and sworn, well and truly to ascertain whether the paper writing produced, be the will of the said W. Horace Taylor deceased, and having heard the testimony of witnesses and arguments of counsel rendered a verdict in the words following to wit: "We the jury ascertain that W. Horace Taylor did testate and that the paper hitherto produced in Court as his last will and testament, is, the last will and testament of said W. Horace Taylor deceased. B. Fleit Foreman Whereupon it is considered by the Court that the said paper be recorded as the last will and testament of the said W. Horace Taylor deceased

In the name of God Amen. I Andrew White of King, + Queen County do make this my last will and Testament, as follows.

I direct that my body be decently buried, in a manner Corresponding to my estate and situation in life, but with as little expense as may be consistent therewith. And as to such worldly Estate as I may die possessed of I dispose of as follows.

- (1) I direct that all of my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be, and to that end I do charge all of my estate real and personal with the same.
- (2) Secondly I give to my beloved wife, all of my property real and personal to hold so long as she remains unmarried but at her death or Maniax to be equally divided between my six youngest Children namely, Hizekiah, Andrew, Letitia, Sarah and Elizabeth White and William White
- (3) Thirdly, I appoint Hizekiah White my son
