

Shew all men by these presents, That we J. H. Jones and James W. Smith are held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Virginia in the just and full sum of Twelve Thousand Dollars, to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Commonwealth, we bind ourselves our heirs and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents; and we hereby waive the benefit of our Homestead Exemption as to this obligation, sealed with our seals and dated this 10th day of March 1876. The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the above bound J. H. Jones and J. W. Smith have this day been allowed to qualify as Executors of the last will & testament of James Smith deceased without security, Now, if the above bound J. H. Jones and J. W. Smith shall faithfully discharge the duties of their said office or trust according to law; then the above obligation is to be void, other wise to remain in full force and virtue,

Signed, sealed, acknowledged and delivered in the presence of
 J. H. Jones (seal)
 J. W. Smith (seal)
 The Court (seal)

At a Circuit Court, held for King and Queen County at the Courthouse there, on the 10th day of March 1876. This bond was acknowledged by J. H. Jones and Jas. W. Smith parties thereto, and ordered to be recorded

Teste
 P. F. Taylor Clerk
 Truly recorded
 Teste
 P. F. Taylor Clerk

~~Shew all men by these presents, That we, William F. Haynes and Theodore Countryord held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Virginia in the just and full sum of One Thousand Dollars, to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Commonwealth, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors~~