

Telling and Queen County Court March 1st 1883.

This last will and testament of Beverly Anderson deceased was produced in Court by Garret Anderson the executor named therein, and was proved by the oaths of W. F. Lottman, M. F. Post and Garret Post Jr. The subscribing witnesses I have read and allowed to be read to, and on the motion of the said Garret Anderson, the executor named therein, who read each of the contents into and allowed to be read about in the presence of Sir Edmund (Hamm) Williams Archdeacon as the law directs without saying the testator having requested in his will that no security be required of his said executor. As the estate is secured herein for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

Teste

J. H. Taylor

Wm. by Recorder

Teste

B. F. Taylor

In the name of God amen, I Jesse Hopkins of the County of King Queen in the State of Virginia being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this last will and testament, I have and my wife Eliza Hopkins during her life provided she shall survive me all of my estate both real and personal.

I give to my Grandson George Franklin Barton a portion of my land commencing at a poplar tree, on the line between my land and Robert Collins, Thence to a pine Thence to cedar in the field, Thence to a cedar just out side of the field Thence to a logwood, Thence to a Hickory Thence to a mulberry in the swamp in the line of Thomas Coleman to take Thence to the above named person, if the said George Franklin shall die before he comes of age or two. A lawful issue of the body I desire the above named land to go to my son Randall H. H. (or if the said George Franklin shall die in the said land his wife my son Randall the refused. if I am 3rd I give my son Randall H. H. the balance of my land not named in this will, and if he shall die without a lawful issue of the body I desire the land to go to the child of my sons William & Jesse Hoskins Thence I give the balance of my estate to be equally divided between my sons Randall H. H. and Jesse and my grandson George Franklin Braxton, Given under my hand and seal this Seventh day of August Eighteen Hundred & Seventy three signed sealed & subscribed in the presence of 12 witnesses present at the signing have attested the same in the presence of the testator and at his request.

Witness Edward Walden
 Robert P. Eubank
 Milton Walden

Attest and seal Court Clerk April 5th 1883 This last will & testament of Jesse Hoskins, was read in Court opened by the oaths of Edward Walden, Milton Walden and Robert

P. Exhibit the subscribing witnesses hands, and ordered to be recorded.

Teste
H. H. Taylor
Very Respectfully

Teste
B. F. Taylor

11/18th I, Edward S. Carr of the County of Henry, State of Virginia, do make and publish this my last will testament.
Item 1. After my death, I desire that my Executors shall proceed to settle up my interest in the mercantile business conducted in the firm name of Carr & Walker, and of Carr & Walker Co. and that this be done with as little delay as may be prudent and practicable, Item 2. I desire if it be necessary for the payment of my just ^{and legal} debts, that my executors shall sell my real and personal estate, or so much thereof as may be required for that purpose either privately or at public auction, as in their discretion may seem best.
Item 3rd After payment all legal demands against my estate, I give to my beloved and faithful wife, the residue of my estate both real and personal during her lifetime to be used by her for her own maintenance and comfort as she may see fit, and whatever of said ^{estate} may be remaining at her death, I wish equally divided between all my