

At a monthly Court held for the County of King & Queen at the Court House thereof on Thursday the 6th day of Feby 1890

In the matter of the probate of the will of Elizabeth Martin - This day came again Mollie Loven by her attorney and J. W. Fleet Guardian ad litem of Robert Martin a Curator, Lemuel Brown and E. B. Brown who have been duly summoned as required by the order of the last term failing to appear and show cause to the contrary. It is ordered that the paper writing heretofore produced in Court as the last will and Testament of Elizabeth Martin and be admitted to record as the last will and Testament of the said Elizabeth Martin dead

Given at N. B. P. under L. C.

Truly removed

In to

B. T. Taylor

clerk

In the name of God amen. I John Robert Bagby of the County of King & Queen State of Virginia do make this my last will & Testament hereby revoking all others - 1st I direct that all my real estate except the Cosby lot at Stevensville shall be kept together during the life of my wife for the maintenance and support of her and my unmarried daughters. The same to be cultivated or rented as may be most to their advantage provided however that my Executor shall be authorized with the consent of my wife given in writing to sell the same and "Redds" upon the terms and conditions as to the sale and proceeds of sale as are mentioned in the next clause in regard to the Cosby lot -

2^d I direct that my Executor shall be authorized to sell and convey the Cosby lot at Stevensville if after consultation with judicious friends it is thought to be for the interest of those interested, such sale being made publicly or privately as in his opinion best, and the proceeds safely invested for the support and maintenance of my wife and unmarried daughters. The purchase of said lot is not to be liable for the proper application of the purchase money by my Executor -

3^d I direct that there shall be no appraisal or sale of my household or kitchen furniture during the life of my wife and the remainder of my personal property my Executor is directed to make sale of such as cannot be prudently used for the comfort & support of my wife and unmarried daughters or the cultivation of my real estate -

4th At the death of my wife should she survive me I direct a sale of all my personal effects by my Executor -

5th All my estate both real and personal (after my debts are paid which I direct shall be done out of my interest in my mercantile business) and after being used and enjoyed during the life of my wife as herein before directed, I devise and bequeath to my three daughters Bessie F. Maria L & Mary C and to my son John Robert share & share alike (no provision is made by this will for my son Wm F because he has already received by advancements more than my other children will likely receive).

6th I direct my Executor during the life of my wife upon the marriage of either of my daughters or upon the attaining of age of my son John Robert to pay over to such daughter or to said son, one fourth part of any amount in his hands derived from the sale of any property under this will or from any other source, such sum to be accounted for by the party receiving the same in the final distribution of my estate -

8th I appoint my son Wm F Bayly the Executor of this will & request that he be allowed to qualify without security - Given under my hand & seal this 11th day of March 1886

Wm F Bayly (Seal)
In King & Queen County, Conn

April 3rd 1890.

This paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of John R. Bayly dead was produced in Court by H. F. Bayly the Executor therein named, and there being no subscribing witness thereto, Henry R. Pollard was sworn and deposed that he is well acquainted with the testators handwriting and verily believes the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the ~~testators~~ ^{testator} own hand, whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and Testament of the said John R. Bayly dead, and on motion of the said H. F. Bayly the executor therein named, who made oath thereto, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Ten thousand dollars, conditioned as the law directs without security. (This testator having requested in his said will that no security be required of his said Executor) a certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form.

John B. J. Taylor C.C.
 Truly recorded
 June B. J. Taylor C.C.

In the name of God Amen.

I Robert H. Henley of King & Queen County Virginia, do make this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made as follows.

Item I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be, and to that end charge my whole estate real and personal with the same.

Item - After the payment of all my just debts, I give and devise to my two children Robert H. Henley and Louisa F. Henley, the balance of my estate, both real and