

Feb 11/82

I John T. Harrison, do make public this my last will and testament being sensible and of sound mind, I have previously made. First I give to William H. Waller the sum of one hundred & twenty five dollars.
Second I give to Edward C. Waller the sum of fifty dollars.

Third after the payment of all my just debts and the payment of legacies I give the entire residue of my estate to Mary E. Waller.

Fourth and lastly, I appoint William H. Waller Jr. Executor of this my last will and testament, witness my hand and seal this fifteenth day of March 1882.

John T. Harrison

acknowledged before us and by us subscribed in the presence of the testator in the presence of each other.

Lillian A. Avera

James R. Ryland

Judge of the County Court May 11th 1882.

This last will and testament of John T. Harrison did: was produced in Court by William Waller the executor therein named and was proved by the oath of James R. Ryland a subscribing witness thereto, and Robert W.
Hendrix, and in the presence of William H. Waller the executor therein named who made oath thereto, and together with Edward C. Waller his son (who justifies in oath as to the sufficiency) entered into & acknowledged and read in the presence of said executor John C. Williams according to law, Certificate granted him for obtaining a patent of said will in conformity

Teste
Geo W Taylor Sr
Truly Ricorded
Teste
B. F. Taylor Esq

I George C Mann of the County of King & State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, do this 17th day of June 1881 make this my last will as follows viz -

I desire that all my just debts shall be paid and my remaining estate divided as follows I give to my son John Robert one half of my farm, known as Rockspring including about known as Slacks, and running out to the main County road, this tract is to be divided into ten equal parts and the value of the land without the buildings, by a line running east & west The other half of this farm including the buildings, I wish to be occupied by my widow and my son Christopher, one half of it, that is one fourth of the tract, I give to my son Christopher, and the other fourth I want to my widow during her life, and at her death give to the children of my son Christopher, and I further direct that my widow shall have the privilege of selecting the portion desired to her, I give to my daughter Lucinda