

will and truly to be made to the said judge or his successors, we bind ourselves and each of us one and each of our heirs executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents sealed with our seals, and dated this 3rd day of November 1806. The Condition of this obligation is, that if the said Rodrick Blaind Executor of the last Will and Testament of Joseph Collier deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to his hands possession or knowledge of him the said Rodrick Blaind or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him; and the same, as aforesaid, do exhibit to the County Court of King and Queen at such time as he shall be there to be required by the said Court; and the same goods chattels and credits, do well and truly administer, according to law; and make a just and true account of his doings and doings therein when thereunto required by the said Court; and further, do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in the said Will as far as the said goods chattels and credits will extend according to the value thereof; and as the law shall charge him then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force
