

I, Mary F. Richardson, being in sound body and mind, do make and constitute this my last will and testament, that I leave to my beloved husband Wm. Richardson my house and land held by James O. Bland Trust for my benefit as long as he lives, and at his death I give it to Wm. Richardson, and Mary Susan Walden to be equally divided between them and hereby authorize my said Trust to convey it (after it is equally divided) to the said Wm. Richardson and Mary Susan Walden, each receiving an equal share.

Hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made, Witness my hand and seal, this 20th day of November One thousand eight hundred and seventy six,

Being humbly sworn April 29 1883-This last will and testament of Mary F. Richardson deceased, was opened for proof, and was proven by the oaths of George T. Hart and C. V. Porter, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and was then recorded, and on the motion of William H. Richardson, who made oath thereto, and together with, William F. Richardson his surety (who justified on oath as to his sufficiency), entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars, conditioned as the law directs. Certificate is granted the said William H. Richardson, for obtaining letters of administration on the said deceased estate, with her will approved annexed in due form.
