

produced in court by James E. Bland & John N. Abraham the executors therein named, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, Joel E. Bray and W.S. Courtney sworn and severally deposed that they were well acquainted with the testatrix hand-writing and believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the testatrix or her hand, whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of the said Jane F. Junatah dead. And on the petition of the said James E. Bland and John N. Abraham the executors therein <sup>named</sup> who made oath thereto and entered into and acknowledged separate bonds in the penalty of $2500 - each conditioned according to law without security, the testatrix having requested in her said will that no security be required of her said executors a certificate is granted them for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form.
