In the name of God, Amen,
I, Joel B. Clarke of the County of King & Queen & State of Virginia, do make and ordain this to be my last will & Testament, revoking all former wills. I direct first that Executor hereinafter to be named, to pay out of my Estate all my just debts. Secondly, I desire that my son Milton Clarke do come to live on my farm, with my wife & daughter & manage & control all the property as he may deem best for the benefit of my wife & daughter, Dicy Clarke, & his own family.
If he wishes to cut Cord wood or other timber on the place, he is at liberty to do so, for the mutual benefit of both families.

Thirdly, I direct that at the death of my wife Lucinda Clarke, that my whole property shall go to my two children Milton Clarke & Dicy Clarke, but they are to pay my other two children Joseph Clarke & Adolphus Clarke each fifteen dollars.

Fourthly, I leave my son Milton Clarke my Executor, & request that the Court do not require
