my Grandson Clarence Graham's benefit and use Eight thousand dollars in Virginia State bonds to hold them and collect the interest on said bonds as it becomes due and invest the same in State bonds also, until the said Clarence Graham shall arrive to the age of twenty one years I then desire that my friend A B Evans trustee for said Clarence Graham shall pay over to my grand Clarence Graham the Eight thousand dollars and the interest that may have accrued thereon. If the said Clarence Graham should be living, if dead, I then desire my friend A Brown Evans trustee for said Clarence Graham to pay over one half of the amount of State bonds divided to him as trustee for Clarence Graham, to my deceased daughter Ann Catharine Graham's Children the remaining half to my daughter Rosalie Dumph if living, if dead, I desire the half divided to her to be over to my deceased daughter Ann Catharine Graham's Children to be equally divided between them.

Secondly. I devise to the Children of my deceased Ann Catharine Dumph Graham ten thousand dollars in Virginia State Bonds to be held by their Father and he to collect the interest as it may become due
and invest the same in State bonds also, until the said Children of Ann Catharine Graham deceased shall arrive to the age of twenty one years and then pay over to each one, one equal part or portion of the said State Bonds, that may be in his hands as guardian for said Children.

Thirdly. I leave to my beloved wife Ann Dumph all the balance of my Estate both and personal for the use of herself and Children.

during her life or widowhood and after such death or widowhood I devise all the same or said Estate to my daughter Rosalie Dumplin if living if dead and leave no living child lawfully begotten of the body I then in that case devise to (if living) my beloved wife Amanda M. Dumplin all the same estate no devised to said Rosalie But if dead, I then devise, that the whole Estate devised to said Rosalie, shall be divided into two parts and one half I devise to the children of my deceased daughter Ann C. Dumplin Graham and the other half to my Grandson Clarence Graham if living, But if dead then I devise the same to the children of my said daughter A. C. Graham.

Fourthly and lastly. I appoint my beloved wife Amanda M. Dumplin my lawful executrix and William Boulware executor. Given under my hand and seal this 13th

I Evan Taylor of the County of King and Queen State of Virginia being weak in body but of sound mind and disposition, do make this my last will and Testament revocable.

1st I recommend my Soul to God and commit my body to the earth from whence it came.

2nd I desire that as soon after my death as may be, a Speculator hereinafter named, sell all of my personal estate in such terms as may be deemed best for the interest of all concerned.

3rd I desire that all my just debts be paid out of the said estate.

4th It is my Will and desire that my wife Susan shall have and hold of my Estate of every kind and the remaining two thirds to be equally divided between my Son Evan that is William Taylor and Taylor.
