

April 3^d 1890.

409

This paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of John B. Bayly decd. was produced in Court by Wm. F. Bayly the Executor therein named, and there being no subscribing witness thereto, Henry C. Pollard was sworn and deposed that he is well acquainted with the testator handwriting and verily believes the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and Testament of the said John B. Bayly decd. and on motion of the said Wm. F. Bayly the Executor therein named, who made oath thereto, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Ten thousand dollars, conditioned as the law directs without security. The testator having reserved in his said will that no security be required of his said Executor) a certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form.

John B. F. Taylor C. C.

Judge, Recorder

John B. F. Taylor C. C.

In the name of God Amen.

I Robert L. Henley of King & Queen County, Virginia do make this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made as follows.

Item - I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be, and to that end charge my whole estate real and personal with the same.

Item - After the payment of all my just debts, I give and devise to my two children Robert L. Henley and Louisa F. Henley, the balance of my estate both real and personal to be equally divided between them.

Item - Having already advanced my son Robert, the sum of Five hundred and three dollars. I direct that he shall be charged with that amount, with out interest as well as with any and all other amounts which my estate may have to pay for him, as security, and that he shall account for all such sums in the division of my said estate, and in the event that my said daughter Louisa, after the payment of my debts, does not receive (from my estate) an amount equal to the sum already advanced to my said son Robert, or which may be advanced to him or for him, by me, or out of my estate, then I direct that my said son Robert shall pay to my said daughter Louisa one half of the amount, which has been, or shall be advanced to or for him, by me, or out of my estate, so as to equalize her, my said daughter Louisa, in the division of my estate. My intention being, that my estate shall be equally divided between my two children, Robert & Henry and Louisa F. Henry.

Item - My deceased son Thomas M. Henry has received amounts from me at various times, & I leave a legacy to his children not from any want of affection on my part for them, for they are true and affectionate, but a sense of justice requires that I divide my estate as above designed.

Item - There being a deed of trust upon my real estate to secure to Benjamin F. Dew the payment of the sum of Two thousand dollars, which was borrowed for my son Robert, I invest the executor with the power to borrow money upon my real estate or to sell the same or portion thereof as may be necessary, and deemed best to satisfy the said debt. Should my said son Robert be unable to pay the same when demanded.

Item - In the event of the decease of my real estate by my Executor. I reserve one eighth of an acre of land including the graves of my family now buried there as a place of sepulture, with the right of ingress and egress. I hereby I appoint Elizabeth B. Jones my Executor of this my last will and Testament. I mean no slight to my son Robert G. Henley, his absence and distance from the State renders it impossible for him to give the necessary attention to my affairs as Executor.

Witness my hand at day of October in the year 1889

signed and published by Robert G. Henley

Henley, as and for his last will in the presence of us who in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses

James C. Smith
 Zachary Parker Richardson

Thomas & Robert Henley

have made my last will in writing bearing date the 24th day of October 1889 now I do hereby make and add a this Codicil and addition thereto to be taken as a part thereof

I have received from my daughter Jane Bessie Henley the sum of Five Hundred dollars which she intended to leave to her sister my daughter Louisa F. Henley and her niece my grand child Ann Bessie Henley. My son Barclay who was the son of Robert & Henley, died in Henley. I do hereby direct that the sum of this Five Hundred dollars to be equally divided among them be paid to the said Louisa F. Henley, Bessie & Henley. My son Barclay who was the son of Robert & Henley, died in Henley. I do hereby direct that the sum of Four Hundred dollars for my daughter Louisa F. Henley and the same being still in my hands for her. I direct that the sum of Four Hundred dollars be paid to her the said Louisa F. Henley in addition

To the amount already devised and bequeathed to her on testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand this 22nd day of February 1890

Signed, published and declared R^o Y Henley by C. Y. Henley as and for his codicil to his last will and testament in the presence of us who in his presence and at his request and in the presence of one another have hereunto signed our names as witnesses thereto

I Parker Richardson

Isaac Diggs

At Kings & Queen County Court March 6th 1890
This writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Robert Y. Henley died with a codicil annexed was offered for proof by legatee B. Jones the executor then named and the said codicil was taken from the oath of Isaac Diggs and I. Parker Richardson subscribing witnesses thereto, and the said will was partly taken by the oath of Fachry Parker Richardson one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and continued for further proof

John B. J. Taylor C.

At Kings & Queen County Court June 30th 1890
This last will and testament of Robert Y. Henley died was this day fully proved to the satisfaction of Alex. B. Gault, the other subscribing witness thereto and ordered to be recorded and entered on the return of legatee B. Jones the executor then named who made oath thereto and to gether with the A. H. Allen as security. The said Alex. B. Gault acting in this behalf by B. J. Taylor his attorney in fact, master in chancery of the court under his hand and seal, returned into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of seven thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs. Certificate is granted the said B. J. Taylor Jones for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form

John B. J. Taylor C.

John B. J. Taylor

John B. J. Taylor C.