In the name of the Lord, Amen, I Samuel Sunstall being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by me.

If any debt shall be outstanding at the time of my death, against my estate, I direct that the same shall be first paid by my Executors hereinafter named.

I devise to my beloved wife, Jane F. Sunstall the sum of ten thousand dollars - To my nephews, Wiley C. Sunstall and James L. Sunstall, and to my niece Eliza Virginia Inge, the children of my deceased brother, James L. Sunstall of Alabama, the sum of two thousand dollars each.

To my nephews George T. Tibbs and Robert T.
Tibbs, children of my sister Eliza, one thousand dollars each, and to my niece Maria C. Tibbs, daughter of my said sister Eliza, the sum of two hundred dollars - To Samuel Bland, the son of my friend W. James E. Bland the sum of five thousand dollars - To Lewis H. Sunstall, and Nannie Sunstall, children of Richard G. Sunstall of Caroline County, One thousand dollars each.

The funds out of which the foregoing devises are to be paid consist of the bonds of several Rail Road Companies, and the corporation of the City of Richmond, the cash value of which varies in the market, but in order to simplify the payment thereof I direct that each devisee shall accept payment in the said bonds, all of which are to be taken at their face or par value. My beloved wife first taking choice of such of the said bonds as she may prefer, to an amount, the face or par value of which is equal to the legacy to her, and that my nieces and nephews and Samuel Bland the son of my friend James E. Bland, and Lewis H. Timstall and his sister Nannie shall respectively be entitled to the choice of the said bonds, in the order in which the devisees are made to them respectively.

3^d I direct that the balance of my bonds, due from corporations or private individuals, my lands, with the mill situated thereon, with all my house and kitchen furniture, implements, vehicles, live stock of all kinds, and every other species of property of whatever description I may die possessed shall constitute the residue of my estate, to be disposed of as hereinafter directed, and I direct further that my said lands and mill, with the above named furniture, implements, live stock, vehicles &c. shall be sold by my Executors hereinafter named, and the proceeds thereof paid over to the parties whom I shall devise the said residue.

4th I devise to the Trustees of Richmond College all the rest and residue of my estate, which I direct shall be invested and held by them and their successors in office, in trust the interest on which I desire shall be appropriated annually, by them to aid in

Young men seeking to acquire an education for the purpose of becoming ministers of religion in the Baptist Church.

I constitute and appoint my friends Mr. Samuel F. Harwood and S. James E. Bland, executors of this my last will and testament, and request that they may not be required to give security to any bond they may have to execute in that character.

Witness my hand and seal the fifteenth (15) day of December in the year Eight hundred and Seventy five (1875)

Samuel Tunstall (sua)

I wish the following writing to constitute and form the Codicil to my will, dated 15th December 1875 and hereto annexed; my wife is at liberty to hold possess and occupy my place of residence at Plymouth, with all buildings and appurtenances, and four hundred acres of land adjoining, in as compact a body as may be most suitable so long as she may wish or desire, without charge, the said land not to be rented out, or any timber cut on taken from the land, the said land to be delivered my executors whenever she may be willing to do so, and to be received by them ^{and proceeds of sale applied as hereinbefore requested} ~~and disposed of by~~ them as hereinbefore requested, my wife may select such house and kitchen — as she may desire without any charge for it, and hold and appropriate it as she pleases. I wish my Executors to retain and hold an amount in money sufficient for all probable contingencies or wants.

Given under my hand and seal the fifth (5) day of May in the year of our Lord 1876

In King & Queen County Court Sept. 14th 1876

This writing purporting to be the last will and testament with a Codicil annexed, of Samuel Tunstall deceased was produced in Court by Samuel F. Harwood, and James E. Bland the Executors therein named, and being no subscribing witnesses thereto Edward Wade and Lewis Hart were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the Testator's handwriting, and verily believe the said writings, and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the Testator's own hand, whereupon the said writings are ordered to be recorded as the true last will and Testament of the said Samuel Tunstall deceased. And on motion of Samuel F. Harwood, and James E. Bland the Executors therein named, who made oath thereto, entered bond and acknowledged their bond in the penalty of Sixty thousand dollars, conditioned as the Court directs, without surety (the testator having provided in his said will that no surety be required of his said Executors, certificate is granted them for obtaining a probat of said will in due form
