In the name of God, amen! I Sarah A. Dushago, of King & Queen Cobb County writing all former wills, do make this my last will and testament. I direct that all my just debts be paid; and subject thereto, I give and bequeath all the estate of every description, of which, I may die possessed, to Charles R. Nunn in trust for my grand children Minnie Lee and Willie McCormick, to be held by him as their joint property subject however, to the following limitations: Should either of my said grand children die under twenty one years of age without issue, the survivor shall be entitled to the whole; And if both of them should die, under twenty one years of age, and without issue, then at the death of the survivor of them; I give one half of my said estate to the Southern Baptist Convention, formed in Augusta Georgia in the month of May 1845 and chartered by the Legislature of the state of Georgia by an act passed and approved December 29th 1845, for foreign missions; And the other one half, I give and bequeath to William J. Hayes with the request that he will apply the same, in such way, as he may deem best, for the benefit of Bonington Church.
This bequest to him however is absolute and unconditional notwithstanding said request. It is my intention that the income of my estate, shall be applied towards the education and maintenance of my grand children, during their minority but the principal shall not be diminished. And unless the Trust fund created for my grand children shall be soon determined by the death of both of them under twenty one years of age and without issue, the same shall be determined, when both of them have attained the age of twenty one years, or one of them having died, prior thereto the other shall have attained to that age. I appoint Charles R. Dunn, my Executor.

Witness my hand and seal this 10 day of October 1879

The undersigned before signing "without issue" in this instrument do hereby declare that we have read the foregoing instrument and fully understand its contents and that we
