William T. Fagg Do Now Make his Will Leaving Matilda his Wife owns as long as she lives if she should be the Longest liver and after her Death to Willie P. Fagg With five Wood ought of Casons. I do love Paulina the house she lives in and fourty acres of Land and after her Death then to her Children the Balance of Casons and the Thirty six acres in parkers I do leave to Walton & Doherty Alice n Fagg the the house and thirty five acres of Land just like the old line water Run living to have the Balance of Land up them after alice getting her thirty five an. Then Walton and Irving can have that six acres of land over yonder in the how left by their grand Mother to their to make you both equal with the rest of children and if I die before Willie becomes and twenty years old if his horse is living is to have her or him a matilda to have third of the Perishable property and after Deaths is payed Irving and Willie to have Balance of the perish property. Now if this Will should be in the Flaw With by any the Leges enters they are Not to hav any the Lands that came by me or that I hav had in my time the Reason I leave this Will this Way I have seen so much hard fe ings among legates in dividing of the estate

This Will Wore Rot By myself and li I Want it Rot This is the year /89

I give my small farm in King William, named Rumford, to my nephew John H. Abrahams, and 300 three hundred $300.00 Willie B. Chivers, my home at Little Plymouth, and one hundred dollars to Dr Jimmy Bland, my iron safe and two hundred dollars, to Mary F. Chivers two hundred dollars. To Harry Bland a feather bed, and furniture, to Walter Bland my gold watch. To my friend Frances I. Bagby wife of George R. Bagby of Richmond one hundred dollars. I wish Willie to give 10 acres of land to Rachel Tyler, any part of the farm he may choose. Then after paying all my just debts, whatever remains divide between the two nephews. I leave Dr Jimmy Bland and John H. Abrahams my Executors no bond required, just settle up and all will be over. After having me nicely interred. I also give my sister M. A. Chivers the use of my chamber room as long as she may need it.
